CSETDA0024A: Develop assessment procedures

Competency Descriptor:

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to develop assessment procedure for a target group, including determining evidence requirements and selecting appropriate assessment methods.

Competency Field:

Education and Training

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.	Establish evidence requirements	1.1	The purpose of the assessment and the target group to be assessed is identified and confirmed with stakeholders.
		1.2	The type of evidence required to infer competency is established.
		1.3	The process of interpreting and recording the evidence is established and documented.
		1.4	Evidence requirements are specified to assure: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - validity - authenticity - sufficiency
		1.5	Links to existing relevant assessment system(s) are defined.
		1.6	Where required, any additional review mechanisms are identified and documented.
		1.7	Where required, the reporting formats for the assessment process and recording of outcomes are designed.
		1.8	The development, implementation and review costs of the assessment procedure are estimated.
2.	Identify assessment methods	2.1	The context and location of assessments are described and specified.
		2.2	The facilities and physical resources needed to conduct assessments are identified and documented.
		2.3	The number of assessors and any required supports to implement the assessment process is determined.
		2.4	The instructions for the persons being assessed are drafted.

- 2.5 The assessment method(s) to be used are selected and allowable adjustments are proposed to cater for characteristics of persons being assessed.
 - 2.6 The instructions for interpreting the evidence and making a decision of competence are documented.
 - 2.7 Descriptions of likely performances are established and verified with appropriate personnel.
 - 2.8 Other related competencies are identified for inferring full or partial competence from the evidence gathered.
 - 2.9 The rules for verifying assessment decisions are determined.
 - 2.10 Any limits, variations or restrictions on the assessment tools are specified.
 3. Identify potential available assessment tools
 - 3.1 Available assessment tools appropriate to evidence required to infer competency are identified and evaluated in relation to applicability for the:
 - characteristics of persons being assessed
 - assessment contexts
 - assessors
 - 3.2 Where appropriate, a panel of specialists is convened to critique tools for:
 - reliability
 - validity
 - fairness
 - relevance to the workplace context
 - content accuracy
 - ease of use
 - cost effectiveness
 - appropriateness of language
 - avoidance of bias
 - 3.3 Adjustments to the tools and methods are made to ensure applicability to the context, competencies and characteristics of persons being assessed.
 4. Pilot test the assessment methods and tools
 - 4.1 The tools and assessment method is pilot tested with a sample from the target group.
 - 4.2 Allowable adjustments to the assessment method and tools are prepared.
 - 4.3 Additional assessors (if required) are trained to administer the assessment tools in a consistent manner.

- | | | |
|----|-----|---|
| | 4.4 | The assessments tools and methods are administered to the target sample. |
| | 4.5 | Responses from the target sample and the assessors are compiled and analysed. |
| | 4.6 | The appropriateness of the assessment method and the ease of use and language level of the assessment tools are determined. |
| | 4.7 | Improvements and changes to the assessment tools are made where necessary. |
| 5. | | Document assessment procedures |
| | 5.1 | Any influences that may affect (bias) the assessment decision are identified and documented. |
| | 5.2 | Any allowable adjustments to the assessment methods and tools to meet the characteristics of persons being assessed are documented. |
| | 5.3 | The criteria for making decisions of competent or not yet competent are reviewed, and if necessary, adjusted. |
| | 5.4 | The assessment procedure(s) and administration instructions are documented. |

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement explains the scope and context of the unit of competency allowing for differences between workplaces. The scope of variables chosen for training and assessment requirements will depend on the particular work situation.

The following variables may be present

Stakeholders may include:

- industry/professional/trade associations
- trainers/teachers and assessors
- team leaders/managers/employers
- training and assessment coordinators
- participants/employees/learners
- technical/subjects experts including
- language, literacy and numeracy specialists
- government regulatory bodies
- union/employee representatives
- consultative committees
- relevant industry training advisory bodies
- funding bodies
- Statutory Training/Recognition Authorities

Purpose of assessment:

- diagnosing performance
- classifying an employee
- confirming an employee's competency for the purpose of career advancement/job level; awarding a qualification
- providing a statement of attainment;
- confirming progress in competency acquisition/learning
- recognising prior learning or current competencies

Target group may include:

- an enterprise
- a department/division
- a job role/occupation
- an industry sector
- a professional association
- trade group
- community sector
- government organisation

Evidence might be interpreted using a range of reference frames. These include:

- criterion referenced frames
- linkages of evidence to competency standards
- prediction of workplace performance

Evidence for assessment:

Type of evidence may include:

- indirect
- direct
- supplementary
- combination of the above

Allowable adjustment to assessment methods/tools may include:

- provision of support services (e.g., reader, interpreter, attendant caregiver, scribe)
- use of special equipment (e.g. word processor or lifting gear)
- adaptive technology
- shorter assessment to allow for fatigue or medication
- use of large print version of any papers

Characteristics of persons being assessed:

- language, literacy and numeracy levels
- cultural and language background
- educational background or general knowledge
- physical ability
- work organisation or roster
- age
- gender
- experience in assessment
- level of confidence, nervousness or anxiety
- previous experience with topic

Appropriateness of evidence types may include:

- cost effectiveness
- practicability
- flexibility
- communication skills of person(s) being assessed
- assessment experience and characteristics of persons being assessed

Assessment methods may include combinations of:

- direct observation of performance or product
- practical tasks
- projects written/oral/computer-based questioning
- simulation exercise(s)
- consideration of third party reports and self and peer assessment
- authenticated prior achievements

Specialist panel may include:

- technical specialists
- language, literacy and numeracy specialists
- assessment specialists
- management and enterprise representatives
- industry representatives
- union/employee representatives
- potential and past candidates

Operational constraints may include:

- time available for assessment
- relative cost of evidence gathering strategies
- availability of assessors
- availability of experts in the technical area to be assessed
- availability of persons being assessed because of matters such as work organisation
- geographical location of persons being assessed

Links to existing relevant assessment system(s) include:

- recording and reporting requirements
- appropriate personnel and requirements for receiving information about the assessment
- appeal process
- quality assurance mechanisms

The assessment system should specify the following:

- the purpose of assessment
- competencies required of assessors
- record keeping procedures and policies
- any allowable adjustments to the assessment method
- the appeal/review mechanisms and procedures
- the review and evaluation of the assessment process
- the linkages between assessment and training qualifications/awards, employee classification, remuneration, progression
- relevant policies
- quality assurance mechanisms
- apportionment of costs/fees (if applicable)
- marketing/promotion of assessment
- verification arrangements
- auspicing arrangements, if applicable
- partnership arrangements, if applicable

Assessment procedure should include:

- recording procedure
- appeal/review mechanism
- assessment methods to be used
- number of assessors
- assessment tools
- evidence required
- location of assessment
- timing of assessment
- assessment group size
- allowable adjustments to assessment methods and tools

Assessment system:

The assessment system may be developed (and endorsed) by:

- the industry
- the enterprise
- the training organisation
- a combination of the above

Record systems may include:

- paper based systems
- computer-based systems using magnetic or optical storage
- combination of both paper and computer based systems

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Assessment requires evidence of the following products to be collected:

- A description of the stakeholders, target group, the purpose of assessment
- A description of the competencies to be assessed, and evidence required to infer competency
- Documentation on steps taken to develop the assessment procedures, including the piloting of assessment methods and tools in accordance with performance criteria
- Documented assessment procedures.

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- How the target group and stakeholders were determined and consulted
- Why particular assessment methods and tools were selected
- How assessment methods and tools were piloted
- How other persons were involved in the development of the assessment procedure including:
 - the panels of specialists that reviewed the materials - their roles and responsibilities
 - the characteristics of the candidates that piloted the tasks and provided feedback in detail
 - the characteristics of the trial sample.

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- CSETDA0014A Develop assessment tools

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and SkillsKnowledge

Knowledge of:

- relevant industry/enterprise training packages, competency or other performance standards
- assessment methods, their purposes and uses
- skills in applying assessment methods and tools to elicit evidence, in a relevant context, from target group
- development and modification of assessment tools for a defined group of competencies, assessment contexts and to meet the characteristics of persons being assessed
- language and literacy skills to comprehend sources of information and to prepare required documentation
- compliance requirements for copyright and other regulatory requirements

Skills

The ability to:

- identify and correct use of equipment, processes and procedures
- plan own work including predicting
- consequences and identifying improvements
- establish required evidence
- identify assessment methods
- identify, develop or modify assessment tools
- pilot test the assessment methods or tools
- document assessment procedures

(4) Resource Implications

- access to target group, stakeholders, competencies or other standards of performance, information and resources needed to address required knowledge and skills and for the development assessment procedures

(5) Method of Assessment

Review of a portfolio containing the following

- A description of the stakeholders, target group, the purpose of assessment
- A description of the competencies to be assessed, and evidence required to infer competency
- Documentation on steps taken to develop the assessment procedures, including the piloting of assessment methods and tools in accordance with performance criteria
- Documented assessment procedures.

Questioning – oral/written relating to:

- How the target group and stakeholders were determined and consulted
- Why particular assessment methods and tools were selected
- How assessment methods and tools were piloted
- How other persons were involved in the development of the assessment procedure including:
 - the panels of specialists that reviewed the materials - their roles and responsibilities
 - the characteristics of the candidates that piloted the tasks and provided feedback in detail
 - the characteristics of the trial sample.

(6) Context of Assessment

Assessment may occur off the job

CRITICAL EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS

Three levels of performance denote level of competency required to perform a task. These levels do not relate to the NCTVET Qualifications Framework. They relate to the seven areas of generic competency that underpin effective workplace practices.

Appropriateness of evidence types includes:

Components of competency include:

- cost effectiveness
- practicability
- communication skills of person(s) being assessed
- assessment experience and special needs of person(s) being assessed
- task skills
- task management skills
- contingency management skills
- job/role environment skills
- transfer and application of skills and knowledge to new contexts

The assessment system may be developed (and endorsed) by:

- the industry
- the enterprise
- the Accredited Training Organisation
- a combination of the above

Assessment instruments may be amended to ensure:

- ease of use
- language and other literacy/numeracy requirements are met in terms of the relevant competencies
- appropriateness for the assessment context and competencies
- costs/time effectiveness for candidates and assessors

The assessment system should specify the following:

- the purpose of assessment
- competencies required of assessors
- record keeping procedures and policies
- any allowable adjustments to the assessment method which are to be made for the person being assessed who have special needs
- the appeal/review mechanisms and procedures
- the review and evaluation of the assessment process

- geographical location of person(s) being assessed

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Assessment requires evidence of the following products to be collected:

- A plan for the development of the assessment tool(s)
- Assessment tools and related instructions in final format. This should be a useable tool together with a set of instructions for assessors and the person being assessed.
- A report on the piloting of the assessment tools including any changes proposed and made.

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- How the target group was identified.
- How the plan for the development of the assessment tools was prepared.
- How the assessment tools meet the components of competency for the target group.
- How the assessment tools were validated.
- How the finalised assessment tools were incorporated in assessment procedure(s)

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- CSETDA0004A – Develop assessment procedures.

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and SkillsKnowledge

Knowledge of:

- relevant training packages, competency or other standards of performance
- different methodology for developing assessment tools
- compliance with requirements for copyright and other regulatory requirements
- language and literacy skills to collect and interpret relevant information
- communicate with stakeholders and appropriate personnel

Skills

The ability to:

- apply evaluation methodology particularly in relation to pilot testing assessment tools
- plan own work including predicting consequences and identifying improvements
- apply relevant workplace policies and procedures and any related legislation or regulatory requirements
- apply communication skills appropriate to the culture of the workplace

(4) Resource Implications

- Access to a target group, information and resources to meet the required skills and knowledge to development of assessment tools.

(5) Method of Assessment

Review of a portfolio containing the following:

- A plan for the development of the assessment tool(s)
- Assessment tools and related instructions in final format. This should be a useable tool together with a set of instructions for assessors and the person being assessed
- A report on the pilot test of the assessment tools including any changes proposed and made.

Questioning – oral/written relating to:

- How the target group was identified
- How the plan for the development of the assessment tools was prepared
- How the assessment tools meet the components of competency for the target group

CSEASV0014APlan and organise assessment

Competency Descriptor:

This unit addresses the competence of planning the assessment process and making the organisational arrangements which enable assessment to occur. It is applicable in both a learning and assessment pathway and an assessment only pathway.

Competency Field: Assessment Verification

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1. Determine focus of assessment	1.1	Candidates are identified/confirmed and the purpose/s and context of assessment are established/ confirmed with relevant people in accordance with legal/organisational/ethical requirements.
	1.2	The assessment strategy is accessed and used to guide the development of the assessment plan, where applicable.
	1.3	The benchmarks for assessment are identified/confirmed and accessed.
2. Prepare the assessment plan	2.1	The assessment benchmarks are interpreted to determine the evidence and types of evidence needed to demonstrate competency in accordance with the rules of evidence.
	2.2	Where competency standards are used as benchmarks, all component parts of the competency standards, are addressed in defining and documenting the evidence to be collected.
	2.3	Any related documentation to support planning the assessment process is accessed and interpreted.
	2.4	Assessment methods and assessment tools are selected/confirmed which address the evidence to be collected in accordance with the principles of assessment.
	2.5	Specific material and physical resources required to collect evidence are identified and documented.
	2.6	Roles and responsibilities of all people involved in the assessment process are clarified, agreed and documented.

- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| | 2.7 | Timelines and time periods for evidence collection are determined and all information to be included in the assessment plan is documented. |
| | 2.8 | The assessment plan is confirmed with relevant personnel. |
| 3. | Contextualise and review assessment plan | |
| | 3.1 | Characteristics of the candidate/s and any allowances for reasonable adjustments and/or specific needs are identified/clarified with relevant people and documented. |
| | 3.2 | Where required, competency standards are contextualised, to reflect the operating environment in which assessment will occur, in accordance with contextualisation guidelines. |
| | 3.3 | Selected assessment methods and assessment tools are examined and adjusted, where required, to ensure continuing applicability taking into account: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • any contextualisation of competency standards • reasonable adjustment/s, where identified. • integration of assessment activities, where appropriate and practical • capacity to support application for recognition of current competence |
| | 3.4 | Adjusted assessment tools are reviewed to ensure the specifications of the competency standards are still addressed. |
| | 3.5 | The assessment plan is updated, as needed, to reflect ongoing contextualisation needs, any changes in organisational resource requirements or changes in response to the conduct of assessment. |
| | 3.6 | Assessment plan/s are stored and retrieved in accordance with assessment system policies and procedures and legal/organisational/ethical requirements. |
| 4. | Organise assessment arrangements | |
| | 4.1 | Identified material and physical resource requirements are arranged in accordance with assessment system policies and procedures and legal/organisational/ethical requirements. |
| | 4.2 | Any specialist support required for assessment is organised and arranged in accordance with organisational/ethical/legal requirements, where required. |
| | 4.3 | Roles and responsibilities of all people involved in the assessment process are organised. |

- 4.4 Effective communication strategies are established to encourage regular communication flow and feedback with relevant people involved in the assessment process.
- 4.5 Assessment record keeping and reporting arrangements are confirmed.

RANGE STATEMENTS

The Range Statement adds definition to the unit by elaborating critical or significant aspects of the performance requirements of the unit. The Range Statement establishes the range of indicative meanings or applications of these requirements in different operating contexts and conditions.

For this unit the following variables may be present:

Assessment may include:

- recognising current existing competence of candidate/s
- determining if competence has been achieved following learning
- establishing candidate/s progress towards achievement of competence
- determining language, literacy, numeracy needs of candidates/s
- certifying competence through a Statement of Attainment
- establishing progress towards a qualification
- determining training gaps of candidate/s
- measuring work performance
- classifying employees/support career progression
- meeting organisational requirements for work - operate equipment/develop new skills

Context of assessment may include:

- the environment in which the assessment will be carried out, including real work/simulation
- opportunities for collecting evidence in a number of situations
- who carries out the assessment
- relationships between competency standards and work activities in the candidate's workplace
- relationships between competency standards and learning activities
- aspiring and partnership arrangements
- the period of time during which the assessment takes place
- quality assurance mechanisms
- individual unit or integrated approaches to competency assessment

Relevant people may include:

- the client, company or organisation
- team leaders, managers, supervisors
- delivery personnel
- technical/subject experts
- training and assessment coordinators
- industry regulators
- employee and employer representatives
- members of professional associations

Relevant people must include:

- the candidate/s
- the assessor/s responsible for conducting the assessment/s

The assessment strategy may encompass:

- the identification of the competency standards forming the qualification and
- interpretation of the packaging rules of the qualification, where part of a Training Package
- interpretation of the competency standards as the benchmarks for assessment
- application of Training Package Assessment Guidelines, where part of a Training Package
- arrangements for recognition of existing competence, including provision of guidance and assistance to candidates in gathering and evaluating evidence
- determination of assessment methods for identified competency standards
- selection of assessment tools for identified competency standards
- organisational arrangements for assessment, including physical and human resources, roles and responsibilities and partnership arrangements (where relevant)
- nominated quality assurance mechanisms
- identified risk management strategies

Benchmark/s for assessment refers to:

- the criterion against which the candidate is assessed which, may be a competency standard/unit of competency, assessment criteria of course curricula, performance specifications, product specifications

Types of evidence may include:

- direct, e.g. observation of work activities under real/simulated work conditions, examples of work products
- indirect, e.g. third party reports from a range of sources
- supplementary, e.g. question and answer, work records, training records, portfolios
- candidate gathered evidence
- assessor gathered evidence
- current/recent/historical
- combination of above

Legal/organisational/ethical requirements may include:

- assessment system policies and procedures
- assessment strategy requirement
- reporting, recording and retrieval systems for assessment
- quality assurance systems
- business and performance plans
- access and equity policies and procedures
- collaborative/partnership arrangements
- defined resource parameters
- mutual recognition arrangements
- industrial relations systems and processes, awards/enterprise agreements
- registration scope
- human resources policies/procedures
- legal requirements including anti-discrimination, equal employment, job role/responsibilities/conditions
- relevant industry codes of practice
- confidentiality and privacy requirements
- OHS considerations

Evidence is:

- material collected which, when matched against the specifications in the competency standards, provides proof of competency achievement

Principles of assessment are:

- reliability
- flexibility
- fairness
- documents required for the assessors and candidates, including competency standards and assessment tools

Specialist support may include:

- development of online assessment activities
- support for remote or isolated candidates and/or assessors
- support from subject matter or safety experts
- advice from regulatory authorities
- assessment teams/panels
- support from lead assessors
- advice from policy development experts
- interviews (face-to-face or telephone)

Material and physical resources may include:

- plant and equipment
- technology
- personal protective equipment
- venues for assessment
- adaptive technologies

Relevant personnel may include:

- lead assessor
- training and/or assessment supervisor/coordinator
- training and/or assessment manager

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Candidate must demonstrate the ability to:

- determine focus of assessment
- prepare the assessment plan
- contextualise and review assessment plan
- organise assessment arrangements

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and SkillsKnowledge

Knowledge of::

- competency-based assessment: work focused, criterion referenced, standards-based, evidence-based
- the different purposes of assessment and different assessment contexts
- how to read and interpret the identified competency standards as the benchmarks for assessment
- how to contextualise competency standards within relevant guidelines
- different types of assessment methods, including suitability for collecting various types of evidence
- assessment tools and their purpose; different types of tools; relevance of different tools for specific evidence gathering opportunities
- different resource requirements for assessment and associated costs
- where to source other relevant assessment information and how to incorporate this into the plan
- the principles of inclusivity, and strategies for reasonable adjustment, without compromise to the competency standards
- sources and types of specialist support to candidates
- methodologies suitable for reviewing assessment tools
- the assessment system policies and procedures established by the industry and/or organisation

Skill

The ability to:

- apply cognitive interpretation skills to:
 - accurately interpret competency standards and other assessment documentation
 - identify opportunities for integrated competency assessment
 - contextualise competency standards to the operating assessment environment
 - sort information
- apply observation skills to:
 - assess the effectiveness of the organisation's assessment operations
 - identify where improvement to the assessment process can be made
- apply technology skills to:
 - use appropriate equipment and software to communicate effectively with others
- apply research and evaluation skills to:
 - obtain competency standards and other assessment information, assessment tools and other relevant assessment resources
 - research candidate characteristics and any reasonable adjustment needs
 - identify and confirm required material and physical resources
 - evaluate feedback, and determine and implement improvements to processes
 - make recommendations
 - apply planning skills relating to formulation of the assessment plan
 - organisational skills relating to organising resources required

Knowledge

Knowledge of::

- risks and requirements associated with different assessment applications in various contexts
- copyright and privacy laws in terms of electronic technology
- OHS responsibilities associated with planning and organising assessment

Skill

The ability to:

- apply literacy skills to:
- read and interpret relevant information to design and facilitate assessment and recognition processes
- prepare required documentation and information for those involved in assessment processes
- apply communication skills to:
- discuss assessment processes with clients and assessors
- establish professional relationships and networks
- promote and implement equity, fairness, validity, reliability and flexibility in planning an assessment process

(4) Resource Implications

The following resources should be made available:

- relevant Training Package/s
- assessment materials and tools
- other relevant assessment information
- a suitable assessment venue/equipment
- workplace documentation

(5) Method of Assessment

- a range of appropriate assessment methods/evidence gathering techniques may be used to determine competency
- an integrated approach to assessment may also be employed

(6) Context of Assessment

Assessment should occur on the job or in a simulated workplace.

CRITICAL EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS

Three levels of performance denote level of competency required to perform a task. These levels do not relate to the NCTVET Qualification Framework. They relate to the seven areas of generic competency that underpin effective workplace practices.

CSETDA0044A: Conduct assessment

Competency Descriptor:

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to conduct assessment.

Competency Field:

Education and Training

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.	Identify and explain the context of assessment	1.1	The context and purpose of assessment are discussed and confirmed with the person(s) being assessed.
		1.2	The relevant performance standards to be used in the assessment (eg. current endorsed competency standards for the specific industry) are clearly explained to the person being assessed.
		1.3	The assessment procedure is clarified and expectations of assessor and candidate are agreed.
		1.4	Any legal and ethical responsibilities associated with the assessment are explained to the person(s) being assessed.
		1.5	The needs of the person being assessed are determined to establish any allowable adjustments in the assessment procedure.
		1.6	Information is conveyed using language and interactive strategies and techniques to communicate effectively with the person(s) being assessed.
2.	Plan evidence gathering opportunities	2.1	Opportunities to gather evidence of competency, which occurs as part of workplace or training activities, are identified covering the dimensions of competency.
		2.2	The need to gather additional evidence which may not occur as part of the workplace or training activities are identified.
		2.3	Evidence gathering activities are planned to provide sufficient, reliable, valid and fair evidence of competency in accordance with the assessment procedure.
3.	Organise assessment	3.1	The resources specified in the assessment procedure are obtained and arranged within a safe and accessible assessment environment.
		3.2	Appropriate personnel are informed of the assessment.

- | | | | |
|----|--|-----|--|
| | | 3.3 | Spoken interactions and any written documents employ language and strategies and techniques to ensure the assessment arrangements are understood by all person(s) being assessed and appropriate personnel. |
| 4. | Gather evidence | 4.1 | Verbal and non-verbal communication strategies are employed to promote a supportive assessment environment to gather evidence. |
| | | 4.2 | The evidence specified in the assessment procedure is gathered, using the assessment methods and tools. |
| | | 4.3 | Evidence is gathered in accordance with specified allowable adjustments where applicable. |
| | | 4.4 | The evidence gathered is documented in accordance with the assessment procedure. |
| 5. | Make the assessment decision | 5.1 | The evidence is evaluated in terms of the principles of quality evidence. |
| | | 5.2 | The evidence is evaluated according to the dimensions of competency |
| | | 5.3 | Guidance is sought, when in doubt, from a more experienced assessor(s) |
| | | 5.4 | The assessment decision is made in accordance with the criteria specified in the assessment procedure |
| 6 | Record assessment results | 6.1 | Assessment results are recorded accurately in accordance with the specified record keeping requirements |
| | | 6.2 | Confidentiality of assessment outcome is maintained and access to the assessment records is provided only to authorised personnel |
| 7. | Provide feedback to persons being assessed | 7.1 | Clear and constructive feedback in relation to performance is given to the person(s) being assessed, using language and strategies to suit the person(s) including guidance on further goals/training opportunities. |
| | | 7.2 | Opportunities for overcoming any gaps in competency, as revealed by the assessment, are explored with the person(s) being assessed. |
| | | 7.3 | The person(s) being assessed is advised of available reassessment opportunities and/or review appeal mechanisms where the assessment decision is challenged. |

- | | | | |
|----|---|-----|---|
| 8. | Report on the conduct of the assessment | 8.1 | Positive and negative features experienced in conducting the assessment are reported to those responsible for the assessment procedure. |
| | | 8.2 | Any assessment decision disputed by the person(s) being assessed is recorded and reported promptly to those responsible for the assessment procedure. |
| | | 8.3 | Suggestions for improving any aspect of the assessment process are made to appropriate personnel. |

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement explains the scope and context of the unit of competency allowing for differences between workplaces. The scope of variables chosen for training and assessment requirements will depend on the particular work situation.

The following variables may be present

The assessment system should specify the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the purpose of assessment • competencies required of assessors • record keeping procedures and policies • any allowable adjustments to the assessment method which may be made • the appeal/review mechanisms and procedures • the review and evaluation of the assessment process • the linkages between assessment and training qualifications/awards, employee classification, progression • relevant policies • quality assurance mechanisms • apportionment of costs/fees (if applicable) • marketing/promotion of assessment • verification arrangements • auspicing arrangements, if applicable • partnership arrangements, if applicable 	Specific assessment context may be determined by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • purpose of the assessment, such as <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to gain a particular qualification or a licence • to determine employee classification • to identify training needs or progress • to recognise prior learning/current competencies • location of the assessment, such as <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • on the job or off the job • combination of both • the Assessment Guidelines of NCTVET of the Accredited Training Organisation • features of assessment system

The assessment system may be developed by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the industry • the enterprise • the Accredited Training Organisation • a combination of the above

Characteristics of persons being assessed may include:

- language, literacy and numeracy needs
- cultural, language and educational background
- gender
- physical ability
- level of confidence, nervousness or anxiety
- age
- experience in training and assessment
- previous experience with the topic

Appropriate personnel may include:

- assessors
- person(s) being assessed
- employee/union representatives
- consultative committees
- users of assessment information such as training providers, employers, human resource departments
- other training institution, HEART/NTA, NCTVET
- training and assessment coordinators
- relevant managers/supervisors/team leaders
- technical specialists
- a combination of the above

Assessment tools may include:

- specific instructions to be given relating to the performance of practical tasks or processes or simulation exercises
- specific instructions to be given in relation to projects and exercises
- sets of oral/written/computer based questions to be asked
- performance checklists
- log books
- marking guides
- descriptions of competent performance
- a combination of the above

Assessment procedure may include:

- The assessment procedure developed (and endorsed) by person(s) responsible for the implementation of the assessment process in:
 - the industry
 - the enterprise
 - the training organisation
 - a combination of the above
- The assessment procedure should specify the following:
 - recording procedure
 - appeal/review mechanism
 - assessment methods to be used
 - instructions/materials to be provided to the person(s) being assessed
 - criteria for making decisions of competent, or not yet competent
 - number of assessors
 - assessment tools
 - evidence required
 - location of assessment
 - timing of assessment
 - assessment group size
- allowable adjustments to the assessment procedure depending on the characteristics of the person(s) being assessed

Assessment methods may include:

- work samples and /or simulations
- direct observation of performance, products, practical tasks, projects and simulation exercises
- review of logbooks and portfolios
- consideration of third party reports and authenticated prior achievements
- written, oral or computer managed questioning
- a combination of the above

Principles of quality evidence include:

- validity
- authenticity
- sufficiency
- currency
- consistent achievement of the specified standard

Assessment environment and resources to be considered may include:

- time
- location
- personnel
- finances/costs
- equipment
- materials
- OHS requirements
- enterprise/industry standard operating procedures

Assessment reporting:

- final assessments will record the unit(s) of competency in terms of code, title and endorsement date
- summative assessment reports, where issued, will indicate units of competency where additional learning is required

Dimensions of competency include:

- task skills
- task management skills
- contingency management skills
- job/role environment skill
- transfer and application of knowledge and skills to new contexts

Allowable adjustments may include:

- provision of personal support services (e.g., reader, interpreter, attendant carer, scribe)
- use of adaptive technology or special equipment (e.g. work processor or lifting gear)
- design of shorter assessment sessions to allow for fatigue or medication
- use of large print version of any papers

Recording procedures may include:

- forms designed for the specific assessment result (paper or electronic)
- checklists for recording observations/process used (paper or electronic)
- combination of the above

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence.

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Assessment requires evidence of the following products to be collected:

- description of the assessment context, including the purpose of assessment,
- the relevant competency or other performance standard and assessment procedure used
- description of how evidence gathered is valid, authentic, sufficient, fair and reliable to ensure competency
- conduct of assessment in accordance with competency requirements

- recording of the assessment results in accordance with the specified assessment procedure and record keeping requirements
- report on the conduct of the assessment, including positive and negative features and suggestions for improving any aspect of the assessment process

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- how agreement was sought with the person(s) being assessed on the conduct of the assessment
- how opportunities to gather evidence were identified as part of workplace or training activities
- how evidence was gathered in accordance with the assessment procedure
- how evidence gathering activity covered the dimensions of competency
- how resources were arranged according to the assessment procedure
- how appropriate personnel were consulted
- how evidence was gathered in accordance with allowable adjustments to the assessment method where applicable
- how evidence was evaluated in terms of validity, authenticity, sufficiency, currency and consistent achievement of the specified standard
- how the assessment was conducted to ensure that :
 - all arrangements and activities were understood by all parties
 - the person was put at ease and the supportive assessment environment was created
 - language, literacy and numeracy issues were taken into consideration
- how constructive feedback was provided to the person(s) being assessed including instances of not yet competent
- how guidance was provided to person(s) being assessed on how to overcome gaps in competency revealed.

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- CSETDA0024A – Plan assessment

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and Skills

Knowledge

Knowledge of:

- workplace application of relevant standards of performance including industry or enterprise competency standards and assessment guidelines
- legal and ethical responsibilities including occupational health and safety regulations and procedures, equal employment and anti-discrimination requirements relevant to the specified context
- policies and procedures of the workplace and/or job role together with any related legislation or regulatory requirements
- the assessment principles of reliability, validity, fairness, flexibility, authenticity, sufficiency and consistency
- the assessment guidelines of the NCTVET/training institution/organization
- planning and organizing own work including contingencies and identifying improvements

Knowledge

Knowledge of:

- how to apply various assessment strategies methods/tools, relevant to workplace context
- language, literacy and numeracy skills required to:
 - give clear and precise instructions and information in spoken or written form
 - seek confirmation of understanding from the person(s) being assessed
 - adjust language to suit target audience
 - prepare required documentation using clear and comprehensible language and layout
 - ask probing questions and listen strategically to understand responses of the person being assessed
 - seek additional information for clarification purposes
 - use verbal and non-verbal language to promote a supportive assessment environment
 - use language of negotiation and conflict resolution to minimise conflict
 - communication skills appropriate to the culture of the workplace and the individual(s)

Skills

The ability to:

- apply various assessment methods/tools, relevant to workplace context
- language, literacy and numeracy skills required to:
 - give clear and precise instructions and information in spoken or written form

 - seek additional information for clarification purposes
 - use verbal and non-verbal language to promote a supportive assessment environment
 - use language of negotiation and conflict resolution to minimise conflict
 - Communication skills appropriate to the culture of the workplace and the individual(s).

(4) Resource Implications

- Access to relevant competencies, sources of information on assessment methods, assessment tools and assessment procedures.
- Access to person(s) wishing to be assessed, relevant workplace equipment, information and appropriate personnel.

(5) Method of Assessment

Review of a portfolio containing the following:

- description of the assessment context, including the purpose of assessment,
- the relevant competency or other performance standard and assessment procedure used
- a description of how the assessment was conducted
- a record of the assessment results in accordance with the specified assessment procedure and record keeping requirements
- report on the conduct of the assessment, including positive and negative features and suggestions for improving any aspect of the assessment process

Questioning – oral/written relating to:

- how agreement was sought with the person(s) being assessed on the conduct of the assessment
- how opportunities to gather evidence were identified as part of workplace or training activities
- how evidence was gathered in accordance with the assessment procedure
- how evidence gathering activity covered the dimensions of competency
- how resources were arranged according to the assessment procedure
- how appropriate personnel were consulted
- how evidence was gathered in accordance with allowable adjustments to the assessment method where applicable
- how evidence was evaluated in terms of validity, authenticity, sufficiency, currency and consistent achievement of the specified standard
- how the assessment was conducted to ensure that :

CSETDA0054A: Review assessment

Competency Descriptor:

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to review assessment procedures in a specific context.

Competency Field:

Education and Training

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Review the assessment procedure(s)	1.1	Appropriate personnel are given the opportunity to review the assessment outcomes and procedure using agreed evaluation criteria.
		1.2	The review process established by the enterprise, industry or registered training organisation is followed.
		1.3	The assessment procedure(s) is reviewed at a specified site in cooperation with person(s) being assessed, and any appropriate personnel in the industry/enterprise/training establishment and/or any agency identified under legislation. eg NCTVET
		1.4	Review activities are documented, findings are substantiated and the review approach evaluated.
2.	Check consistency of assessment decision	2.1	Evidence from a range of assessments is checked for consistency across the dimensions of competency.
		2.2	Evidence is checked against the key competencies.
		2.3	Consistency of assessment decisions with defined performance standards are reviewed and discrepancies and inconsistencies are noted and acted upon.
3.	Report review findings	3.1	Recommendations are made to appropriate personnel for modifications to the assessment procedure(s) in light of the review outcomes.
		3.2	Records are evaluated to determine whether the needs of appropriate personnel have been met.
		3.3	Effective contributions are made to system-wide reviews of the assessment process and feedback procedures and are reviewed.

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement explains the scope and context of the unit of competency allowing for differences between workplaces. The scope of variables chosen for training and assessment requirements will depend on the particular work situation.

The following variables may be present

The assessment system should specify the following:

- the purpose of assessment
- competencies required of assessors
- record keeping procedures and policies
- any allowable adjustments to the
- assessment method which may be made for the person being assessed who have special needs
- the appeal/review mechanisms and
- procedures
- the review and evaluation of the
- assessment process
- training qualifications/awards, employee classification, progression
- relevant policies
- quality assurance mechanisms
- apportionment of costs/fees (if applicable)
- marketing/promotion of assessment
- verification arrangements
- auspicing arrangements, if applicable
- partnership arrangements, if applicable

Evaluation criteria in review process should include:

- number of persons being assessed
- duration of the assessment procedure
- organisational constraints within which assessors must operate
- occupational health and safety factors
- relationship of the assessor to other appropriate personnel in the assessment process
- fairness of the assessment procedure
- efficiency and effectiveness of the assessment procedure
- competencies achieved by the person(s) being assessed
- difficulties encountered during the planning and conduct of the assessment
- motivation of the person(s) being assessed

Specific assessment context may be determined by:

- purpose of the assessment such as
 - to gain a particular qualification or a licence
 - to determine employee classification
 - to identify training needs or progress
 - to recognise prior learning/current competencies
- location of the assessment such as
 - on the job or off the job
 - combination of both
- Assessment Guidelines of NCTVET or the Accredited Training Organisation
- features of assessment system

Assessment system may be developed by:

- the industry
- the enterprise
- the Accredited Training Organisation
- a combination of the above

Evaluation criteria in review process should include:

- frequency of assessment procedure
- budgetary constraints
- information needs of government and other regulatory bodies
- support needs and professional development needs of assessors
- characteristics of persons being assessed
- human resource management implications
- consistency of assessment decisions
- levels of flexibility in the assessment procedure
- location and resource suitability
- reliability, validity, fairness and flexibility of the assessment tool(s)
- relevance of assessment to specified context
- grievances/challenges to the assessment decision by the person(s) being assessed or their supervisor/manager/employer
- ease of administration
- access and equity considerations
- practicability

Appropriate personnel may include:

- assessors
- person(s) being assessed
- employee/union representatives
- consultative committees
- users of assessment information such as training providers, employers, human resource departments
- other training institutions, HEART/NTA, NCTVET
- training and assessment coordinators
- relevant managers/supervisor/team leaders
- technical specialists

Assessment procedure:

- The assessment procedure is developed (and endorsed) by person(s) responsible for the implementation of the assessment process in:
 - the industry
 - the enterprise
 - the training organisation
 - a combination of the above

The assessment procedure should specify the following:

- recording procedure
- appeal/review mechanism
- assessment methods to be used
- instructions/materials to be provided to the person(s) being assessed
- criteria for making decisions of competent, or not yet competent
- number of assessors
- assessment tools
- evidence required
- location of assessment
- timing of assessment
- assessment group size
- allowable adjustments to the assessment procedure depending on characteristics of person(s) being assessed

Characteristics of persons being assessed may include:

- language, literacy and numeracy needs
- cultural and language background
- educational background or general knowledge
- gender
- age
- physical ability
- previous experience with the topic
- experience in training and assessment
- level of confidence, nervousness or anxiety
- work organisation or roster

Assessment tools may include:

- specific instructions to be given relating to the performance of practical tasks or processes or simulation exercises
- specific instructions to be given in relations to the production projects and exercises
- sets of oral/written/computer based questions to be asked
- performance checklists
- log books
- marking guides
- descriptions of competent performance
- A number of these tools may be used in combination in order to provide enough evidence to make judgments

Assessment environment and resources to be considered:

- time
- location
- personnel
- finances/costs
- equipment
- materials
- OHS requirements
- enterprise/industry standard operating procedures

Assessment methods may include a combination of:

- work samples and or simulations
- direct observation of performance, products, practical tasks, projects and simulation exercises
- review of logbooks and portfolios
- consideration of third party reports and authenticated prior achievements
- written, oral or computer managed questioning

Allowable adjustments may include:

- provision of personal support services (e.g., reader, interpreter, attendant caregiver, scribe)
- use of adaptive technology or special equipment (e.g. work processor or lifting gear)
- design of shorter assessment sessions to allow for fatigue or medication
- use of large print version of any papers

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Assessment requires evidence of the following products to be collected:

- Documented process for the review of the assessment procedure(s)
- A report on the review of the operations and outcomes of the assessment procedure(s) including substantiation of findings and any recommendations for modifications.

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- How the review process for evaluating the assessments in the enterprise, industry or organisation was implemented
- Why particular review/evaluation methodologies were chosen
- How cooperation and input from the person(s) assessed and appropriate personnel was sought as part of the review.

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and SkillsKnowledge

Knowledge of:

- the review process established by the industry, enterprise or training organisation
- of evaluation methodologies relevant to the assessment context
- Relevant standards of performance including industry or enterprise competency standards and assessment guidelines
- legal and ethical responsibilities including occupational health and safety regulations and procedures, equal employment and anti-discrimination requirements
- relevant organisational policies and procedures of the workplace and/or job roll
- the understanding of the assessment principles of reliability, validity, fairness, flexibility, authenticity, sufficiency and consistency

Skills

The ability to:

- Planning own work including predicting consequences and identifying improvements
- Language, literacy and numeracy skills required to:
 - read and interpret review procedures
 - participate in discussions and listen strategically to evaluate information critically
 - gather, select and organise findings from a number of sources document findings in summary form, graphs or tables
 - present findings in a short report to relevant personnel
 - make recommendations based on findings
 - determine cost effectiveness
- Communication skills appropriate to the culture of the workplace and the individual(s)

(4) Resource Implications

- access to relevant competencies, sources of information on assessment methods, assessment tools, assessment procedures and assessment review mechanisms
- access to assessment decisions, relevant workplace equipment, appropriate personnel

(5) Method of Assessment

Review of a portfolio containing the following:

- Documented process for the review of the assessment procedure(s)
- A report on the review of the operations and outcomes of the assessment procedure(s) including substantiation of findings and any recommendations for modifications.

Questioning – oral/written relating to:

- How the review process for evaluating the assessments in the enterprise, industry or organisation was implemented
- Why particular review/evaluation methodologies were chosen
- How cooperation and input from the person(s) assessed and appropriate personnel was sought as part of the review

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence.

(6) Context of Assessment

Assessment may occur on the job or a simulated workplace. The candidate assessor should use competencies relevant to their technical expertise

CSECOR0104A: Maintain and enhance professional practice in the workplace

Competency Descriptor:

This unit specifies the competency required for individuals to manage their personal professional performance and to take responsibility for their professional development in relation to the provision of training and/or assessment services.

Competency Field:

Instructional Services

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Model high standards of performance	1.1	Personal performance is consistent with the organisation's goals and objectives.
		1.2	Appropriate professional techniques and strategies are modelled.
		1.3	Personal work goals and plans reflect individual responsibilities and accountabilities in accordance with organisational/legal requirements.
		1.4	Ethical and inclusive practices are applied in professional practice.
2.	Determine personal development needs	2.1	Personal knowledge and skills are assessed against units of competency and other relevant benchmarks to determine development needs and priorities.
		2.2	Changes in vocational education and training policy and operating environments are identified and the impact on professional practice and personal development needs is determined.
		2.3	Feedback from colleagues and clients is used to identify personal learning needs/areas of professional development.
		2.4	Future career options are identified.
		2.5	Personal learning needs are documented and updated.
		2.6	Personal development needs are discussed with relevant personnel for inclusion in the professional development plan.

- | | | | |
|----|--|-----|--|
| 3. | Participate in professional development activities | 3.1 | Development opportunities suitable to personal learning style/s are selected and used to support continuous learning and maintain currency of professional practice. |
| | | 3.2 | Professional networks are participated in to support continuous learning and to maintain professional practice. |
| | | 3.3 | Own performance and professional competency is continuously improved through engagement in professional development activities. |
| | | 3.4 | Technology is used to maintain regular communication with relevant networks, organisations and individuals. |
| 4. | Reflect on and evaluate professional practice | 4.1 | Developments and trends impacting on professional practice are researched and integrated into work performance. |
| | | 4.2 | Feedback from colleagues/clients is used to identify and introduce improvements in work performance. |
| | | 4.3 | Innovative and responsive approaches for improving professional practice are identified through the use of continuous improvement techniques and processes. |
| | | 4.4 | Records, reports and recommendations for improvement are managed within the organisation's systems and processes. |

RANGE STATEMENTS

The Range Statement adds definition to the unit by elaborating critical or significant aspects of the performance requirements of the unit. The Range Statement establishes the range of indicative meanings or applications of these requirements in different operating contexts and conditions.

Training and/or assessment organisation refers to:

- a Accredited Training Organisation (ATO), i.e. an organisation accredited to provide recognised training and assessment services; includes private commercial colleges/companies, enterprises, community organisations, group training companies and schools
- an organisation working in a partnership arrangement with an ATO to provide recognised training and assessment services
- an organisation that provides non-recognised training and assessment services

Organisation's goals and objectives may relate to:

- business plan
- strategic plan
- operational plan/s
- organisation's code of conduct
- flexibility and client responsiveness
- client satisfaction
- financial performance
- people management
- marketing and client service
- quality and quality assurance

Organisational/legal requirements may include:

- customer complaints, grievances and appeals
- risk identification and management, including OHS
- quality and continuous improvement processes and standards, including validation systems

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The Evidence Guide identifies the critical aspects, knowledge and skills to be demonstrated to confirm competency for this unit. This is an integral part of the assessment of competency and should be read in conjunction with the Range Statement.

(1) Critical Aspects and Evidence

In addition to integrated demonstration of the elements and their related performance criteria, look for evidence that confirms:

- The knowledge requirements of this unit
- The skill requirements of this unit
- Application of the Critical Employability Skills as they relate to this unit
- Use of equipment and application of software in a range of (3 or more) contexts (or occasions, over time)

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and SkillsKnowledge

Knowledge of:

- legislation, procedures and guidelines relating to the use of technology in the workplace
- occupational health and safety procedures and regulations
- logon, backup, virus protection and shutdown procedures for computer equipment
- basic technical terminology in relation to reading manuals and help files
- methods of detecting faults in and solving problems with business technology

Competency Field: Instructional Services

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Participate in an entry meeting	1.1	Objective and scope of audit are confirmed at the meeting.
		1.2	Schedules and logistical arrangements are confirmed at the meeting.
		1.3	Changes to plan, schedules and arrangements are made where required.
2.	Identify and gather information	2.1	A range of potential sources of information is identified.
		2.2	Appropriate persons are interviewed.
		2.3	Sample documentation is collected.
3.	Analyse information	3.1	Audit methods and techniques are used to analyse relevant information.
		3.2	Patterns, trends, interrelationships and areas of risk are identified and reported.
		3.3	Aspects of the audit that require the use of specialists are identified and assistance requested.
4.	Evaluate information	4.1	Information is evaluated against prescribed benchmark.
		4.2	A defensible opinion is formed as to the meeting of benchmarks by the auditee.
		4.3	Opinions are formed from and supported by available information.

- | | | | |
|----|-----------------------------|-----|---|
| 5. | Report findings | 5.1 | Findings are formulated and a corrective action report is prepared. |
| | | 5.2 | Results/findings are examined against audit objectives and presented to lead auditor. |
| | | 5.3 | Recommendations for improvements are reported as applicable. |
| 6. | Participate in exit meeting | 6.1 | Preparations are made for exit meeting. |
| | | 6.2 | Reporting arrangements are agreed upon. |
| | | 6.3 | Context and consequences of audit are explained, and follow-up discussed. |

RANGE STATEMENTS

The Range Statement adds definition to the unit by elaborating critical or significant aspects of the performance requirements of the unit. The Range Statement establishes the range of indicative meanings or applications of these requirements in different operating contexts and conditions.

Legislation, codes and national standards relevant to the workplace which may include:

- award and enterprise agreements and relevant industrial instruments
- relevant legislation from all levels of government that affects business operation, especially in regard to Occupational Health and Safety and environmental issues, equal opportunity, industrial relations and anti-discrimination
- relevant industry codes of practice

Information may include:

- interview results
- activities
- internal documentation
- records, such as meeting minutes, reports or log books
- reports from external sources, such as external laboratory reports and vendor rating

Sample documentation may include:

- meeting minutes
- reports
- log books
- reports from external sources
- documented procedures
- work instructions
- previous audit reports
- test results
- systems specifications
- user requirements definitions

Appropriate persons may include:

- persons performing activities or tasks under consideration in the audit process
- persons from different levels within the auditee's organisation, such as management, administrative personnel and work floor personnel

A corrective action report is used:

- when discrepancies or non-compliances are detected;
- it sets out the action required to correct the problem or to initiate modifications

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The Evidence Guide provides advice to inform and support appropriate assessment of this unit. It contains an overview of the assessment requirements followed by identification of specific aspects of evidence that will need to be addressed in determining competence. The Evidence Guide is an integral part of the unit and should be read and interpreted in conjunction with the other components of competency.

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

A person who demonstrates competence in this unit must be able to provide evidence that they have participated in a range of quality audits as a member of a quality audit team. Evidence will demonstrate participation in entry and exit meetings, gathering of data and information by a range of methods, and analysis of the information gathered to arrive at findings to be included as part of overall report to the exit meeting.

Participation in the audit will be under the supervision of a lead auditor.

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and Skills

Knowledge

Knowledge of:

- legal issues/terminology relating to quality auditing
- audit methods and techniques
- product and/or service knowledge
- quality principles and techniques
- current audit practices
- auditor code of ethics

Skill

The ability to:

- ability to relate to people from a range of social, cultural and ethnic backgrounds, and physical and mental abilities
- apply communication, interpersonal and listening/questioning skills
- work effectively in a team
- apply problem-solving skills
- manage time

(4) Resource Implications

- access to audit documentation
- access to feedback from lead auditor, auditees and other team members

(5) Method of Assessment

In order to achieve consistency of performance, evidence should be collected over a set period of time, which is sufficient to include dealings with an appropriate range and variety of situations.

(6) Context of Assessment

That this unit can be assessed alone or as part of an integrated assessment activity involving other relevant units in areas of auditing, project management and frontline management.

CRITICAL EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS

Three levels of performance denote level of competency required to perform a task. These levels do not relate to the NCTVET Qualification Framework. They relate to the seven areas of generic competency that underpin effective workplace practices.

CSETVM0025A: Plan and conduct moderation activities

Competency Descriptor:

This unit deals with the skills and knowledge required to effectively plan and conduct moderation in an assessment context. It involves carrying out and evaluating internal assessment and quality assurance systems, monitoring the quality of assessor's performance and meeting external quality assurance requirements.

Competency Field:

Instructional Services

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.	Plan moderation	1.1	Specific organisational documentation/information required for the moderation is sourced and collated.
		1.2	Persons to be involved in the moderation are determined, consulted and roles and responsibilities are confirmed.
		1.3	Resources to perform the moderation are determined.
		1.4	A schedule is drawn up outlining timing of the moderation process.
2.	Conduct moderation exercise	2.1	Specific organisational documentation/information relevant to the moderation focus is analysed in accordance with moderation criteria, and key points are noted.
		2.2	Communication and interpersonal skills are used to maintain a professional focus.
		2.3	Check is made for equal opportunities throughout all assessment procedures.
		2.4	Records and notes of all evaluation proceedings are documented.
3.	Prepare Report on findings	3.1	All relevant information is collected in accordance with established procedures.
		3.2	Final report is prepared and filed in accordance with moderation policy and procedures.
		3.3	Results of the moderation outcomes are communicated to the target audience in a systematic and timely manner.

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement provides advice to interpret the scope and context of this unit of competency, allowing for differences between institutions and workplaces. It relates to the unit as a whole and facilitates holistic assessment.

The following variable may be present for this unit.

The moderation team may comprise of:

- lead moderator
- representative from industry
- representative from the Accredited training organisation (ATO)
- representative from the standard unit

Material required may include:

- Templates
- Relevant forms
- Unit competency standards
- Samples of assessed work/scripts/projects

Moderation will meet requirements for:

- relevant awarding bodies
- Accrediting bodies
- internal procedures
- external

Systems may involve:

- Internal Quality Assurance system
- External Quality assurance system

Monitoring of assessors' decisions may involve:

- sampling of assessed work
- standardization of approaches

Feedback is given in terms of:

- findings
- recommendations/interventions

Procedures are in place for:

- appeals
- complaints

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The Evidence Guide identifies the critical aspects, knowledge and skills to be demonstrated to confirm competency for this unit. This is an integral part of the assessment of competency and should be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria and Range Statement.

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Evidence of the following should be provided:

- carrying out and evaluating internal assessment and quality assurance systems
- monitoring the quality of assessors' performance
- meeting external quality assurance requirements
- meeting internal quality assurance requirements
- providing sufficiency of evidence for judgement of competency

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and SkillsKnowledge

Knowledge of:

- how to monitor and review how candidate competence is assessed and recorded
- how to ensure that assessors are consistent and accurate in their assessment
- how to set up effective system for reviewing assessment decision
- appeals and complaints procedures of the awarding bodies
- special needs criteria
- roles and responsibilities of persons involved in the assessment process
- sufficiency of evidence
- how to choose and use appropriate internal assessment evaluation methods based on the organization's requirements and procedures
- evidence collecting methods
- fair, valid, and reliable judgements of evidence
- issues of confidentiality and data protection

Skills

The ability to:

- give constructive feedback
- write moderation report
- make meaningful recommendations
- analyse moderation findings
- apply health, safety and environmental protection and equal opportunities policies
- identify sufficiency of evidence
- evaluate the quality of internal assessment

(4) Resource Implications

Resources may include:

- access to appropriate workplace
- Availability of appropriate templates and forms
- samples of candidates' assessed works

Resource persons may include:

- persons from the relevant industry
- assessors from the Accredited Training Organisation (ATO)
- key persons from the awarding bodies

(5) Method of Assessment

Assessment against this unit may involve the following:

- competency should be assessed by observing samples of assessed work

(6) Context of Assessment

This unit of competence will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated environment.

CSEASV0025A: Conduct internal quality assurance of the assessment process

Competency Descriptor:

This unit deals with the knowledge and skills required to evaluate the internal assessment process, monitor and review internal assessment audit systems, provide support to assessors and carry out related internal verification or moderation activities

Competency Field: Assessment Verification

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Evaluate internal assessment and quality assurance systems	1.1	Organisations and external awarding body requirements are observed when auditing internal assessments.
		1.2	The outcomes required by the standards and their consequences for internal auditing is identified.
		1.3	Appropriate administrative and recording arrangements are carried out to meet external audit requirements.
		1.4	The agreed criteria for selecting and supporting assessors are adhered to.
		1.5	Assessment standardisation guidelines are followed.
		1.6	Procedure for complaints and appeals established by the awarding body is implemented.
		1.7	Internal and external measures of performance are identified and used to adjust internal systems.
		1.8	Recommendations are made to improve internal quality assurance arrangements.
2.	Support assessors	2.1	Assessor's technical and vocational experience is confirmed.
		2.2	The development needs of assessors are identified.
		2.3	Assessors are given the chance to develop their assessment experience and competence.
		2.4	Assessor's progress is monitored.

- | | | |
|--|-----|--|
| | 2.5 | Assessors are given opportunities to standardise assessment decisions. |
| | 2.6 | Assessors are monitored to ensure that they are capable of maintaining standards in accordance with the Assessment Guidelines. |
| 3. Monitor the quality of assessor's performance | 3.1 | Ensure that assessors are preparing for and planning assessments effectively. |
| | 3.2 | Processes are established to ensure that assessors apply safe, fair, valid and reliable methods of assessing candidates' competence. |
| | 3.3 | Assessors are evaluated from time to time to ensure that judgments are consistent. |
| | 3.4 | Assessment facility and resources are checked to ensure assessment decisions are consistent. |
| | 3.5 | Assessors are encouraged to set up and maintain effective working relationships with candidates at all stages of the assessment process. |
| | 3.6 | Policies are established to ensure that relevant Occupational Health and Safety standards are applied and maintained. |
| | 3.7 | Monitoring mechanisms are established and implemented to ensure that assessment reviews, feedback to candidates are done effectively. |
| | 3.8 | Records of assessors are monitored to ensure that they are kept accurate, current and secure. |
| | 3.9 | Assessors are given accurate and helpful feedback on their assessment decisions. |
| 4. Meet external quality assurance requirements | 4.1 | Mechanisms for checking assessment externally are implemented. |
| | 4.2 | Information on internal assessment decisions are planned, collected and analysed. |
| | 4.3 | The timing and nature of external assessment audit arrangements are agreed on. |

- 4.4 Supporting background information is provided to external auditors about the assessment process.
- 4.5 Issues raised by external auditors are explained and supporting information provided where necessary.
- 4.6 Concerns and disagreements about external audit decisions are raised in a clear and constructive manner.
- 4.7 Any questions or concerns which could not be dealt with internally are referred to the awarding body.
- 4.8 Assessors are given feedback on external audit decisions.
- 4.9 External auditing decisions are included in internal reviews of procedures.

RANGE STATEMENTS

The Range Statement adds definition to the unit by elaborating on critical or significant aspects of the performance requirements of the unit. The Range Statement establishes the range of indicative meanings or applications of these requirements in different operating contexts and conditions.

Ethical standards include:

- following assessment system organisational policies and procedures
- demonstrating inclusiveness
- following standards relating to assessment
- ensuring assessment is guided by the principles of assessment and the rules of evidence
- security of information
- confidentiality and privacy requirements

Communication strategies may include:

- email
- memos and correspondence
- meetings
- video conferencing
- e-based learning
- focus groups

Organisational/legal/ethical requirements may relate to:

- NCTVET requirements in assessment/registration
- Assessment specifications of Training Packages
- clauses defining assessment operations in award and enterprise agreements and relevant industrial arrangements
- confidentiality and privacy requirements
- relevant legislation from all levels of government that affect training and/or assessment operations
- occupational health and safety (OHS)
- environmental issues
- equal opportunity requirements
- industrial relations and anti-discrimination
- relevant industry codes of practice
- reporting procedures for assessment results
- certification procedures/requirements
- recording and reporting assessment results
- maintaining and retrieving assessment information
- quality assurance and/or procedures manuals
- goals, objectives, plans, systems and processes
- organisational policies/guidelines
- access and equity principles and practice
- ethical standards
- collaborative/partnership arrangements
- OHS policies, procedures and programs

Assessment system policies and procedures may include:

- rational and purpose of competency-based assessment
- assessment records/data management/information management
- recognition of current competency/recognition of prior learning/credit arrangements
- assessors - needs, qualifications, maintaining currency
- assessment reporting procedures
- assessment appeals
- candidate grievances/complaints

Assessment strategy may encompass:

- the identification of the competency standards forming the qualification and
- interpretation of the packaging rules of the qualification, where part of a Training Package
- interpretation of the competency standards as the benchmarks for assessment
- application of Training Package Assessment Guidelines, where part of a Training Package
- arrangements for recognition of existing competence, including provision of guidance and assistance to candidates in gathering and evaluating evidence
- determination of assessment methods for identified competency standards
- selection of assessment tools for identified competency standards
- organisational arrangements for assessment, including physical and human resources, roles and responsibilities and partnership arrangements (where relevant)
- nominated quality assurance mechanisms
 - identified risk management strategies

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

- Evaluate internal assessment and quality assurance systems
- Support assessors
- Monitor the quality of assessor's performance
- Meet external quality assurance requirements
- Provide workplace coaching
- Communicate effectively

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and Skills

Knowledge

Knowledge of:

- how to monitor and review how candidate competence is assessed and recorded
- how to ensure that individual assessors are consistent and accurate in their assessment judgments over time and with different candidates
- how to ensure that assessment decisions between assessors are monitored so that assessment standards are applied consistently
- how to set up effective systems for reviewing assessment decisions and the progress of candidates
- how to create and apply complaints and appeals procedures in line with the requirements of awarding bodies
- how to monitor equality and access to assessments and practices that do not discriminate
- how to choose appropriate administrative arrangements to support internal assessment audits

Skill

The ability to:

- monitor and review how candidate competence is assessed and recorded
- ensure that individual assessors are consistent and accurate in their assessment judgments over time and with different candidates
- ensure that assessment decisions between assessors are monitored so that assessment standards are applied consistently
- set up effective systems for reviewing assessment decisions and the progress of candidates
- create and apply complaints and appeals procedures in line with the requirements of awarding bodies
- monitor equality and access to assessments and practices that do not discriminate
- choose appropriate administrative arrangements to support internal assessment audits

Knowledge

Knowledge of:

- how to give roles and responsibilities to the people involved in the internal audit process
- how to set and apply clear and effective criteria for choosing assessors
- how to choose and use appropriate internal assessment evaluation methods in line with your organisation's requirements and procedures
- how to use assessment decisions as a way of evaluating internal audit arrangements
- how to use different ways of collecting evidence and how to choose appropriate and efficient methods of doing this
- how to choose different ways of presenting evidence for assessment
- how to ensure that candidates' past experience and achievements can be recognised during their assessment
- how to ensure candidates' knowledge and performance is assessed
- how to adapt assessment procedures to meet individual needs
- how to identify the difficulties you may have in making fair, valid and reliable judgement of evidence
- how to identify the personal characteristics good assessors need and how to measure them
- how to evaluate assessors' technical competence against the agreed standards and assessment procedures
- how to identify assessment principles and make these clear to assessors
- how to identify appropriate standardisation procedures which will help assessors make effective decisions

Skill

The ability to:

- give roles and responsibilities to the people involved in the internal audit process
- set and apply clear and effective criteria for choosing assessors
- choose and use appropriate internal assessment evaluation methods in line with your organisation's requirements and procedures
- use assessment decisions as a way of evaluating internal audit arrangements
- use different ways of collecting evidence and how to choose appropriate and efficient methods of doing this
- choose different ways of presenting evidence for assessment
- ensure that candidates' past experience and achievements can be recognised during their assessment
- ensure candidates' knowledge and performance is assessed
- adapt assessment procedures to meet individual needs
- identify the difficulties you may have in making fair, valid and reliable judgement of evidence
- identify the personal characteristics good assessors need and how to measure them
- evaluate assessors' technical competence against the agreed standards and assessment procedures
- identify assessment principles and make these clear to assessors
- identify appropriate standardisation procedures which will help assessors make effective decisions
- ensure that enough resources are available to meet the needs of assessors
- ensure assessors keep up to date with assessment practices and procedures

Knowledge

Knowledge of:

- how to ensure that enough resources are available to meet the needs of assessors
- how to ensure assessors keep up to date with assessment practices and procedures
- how to give constructive feedback and support to assessors
- how to identify the development needs of assessors and where they can find the support they need
- how to identify and present concerns about external audit decisions in a constructive way
- how to give effective feedback to candidates and assessors on the external audit decisions
- how to use external audit information in a constructive way to improve internal systems
- how to identify where and how changes to internal assessment audit arrangements can and should be made
- how to give candidates access to valid and reliable assessments in line with relevant legislation
- how to identify and apply the requirements of examining and awarding bodies
- how to ensure that internal systems meet the monitoring and inspection requirements of external agencies
- how to identify and plan for issues of confidentiality and data protection during the assessment process
- how to develop a sampling system which ensures that the audit process meets the needs of the awarding body
- how to apply relevant health, safety and environmental protection and equal opportunities policies
- how to plan for the requirements, order and timing of external auditing

Skill

The ability to:

- give constructive feedback and support to assessors
- identify the development needs of assessors and where they can find the support they need
- identify and present concerns about external audit decisions in a constructive way
- give effective feedback to candidates and assessors on the external audit decisions
- use external audit information in a constructive way to improve internal systems
- identify where and how changes to internal assessment audit arrangements can and should be made
- give candidates access to valid and reliable assessments in line with relevant legislation
- identify and apply the requirements of examining and awarding bodies
- ensure that internal systems meet the monitoring and inspection requirements of external agencies
- identify and plan for issues of confidentiality and data protection during the assessment process
- develop a sampling system which ensures that the audit process meets the needs of the awarding body
- apply relevant health, safety and environmental protection and equal opportunities policies
- plan for the requirements, order and timing of external auditing
- choose and set up appropriate administrative arrangements to meet external auditing requirements
- identify the extra information external auditors are likely to need and how best to provide it

Underpinning Knowledge and Skills (Cont'd)Knowledge

Knowledge of:

- how to choose and set up appropriate administrative arrangements to meet external auditing requirements
- how to identify the extra information external auditors are likely to need and how best to provide it
- how to identify and evaluate external factors that influence changes in your own area of competence
- how to identify appropriate sources of support for your own development

Skill

The ability to:

- identify and evaluate external factors that influence changes in your own area of competence
- identify appropriate sources of support for your own development
- keep accurate and current records
- provide quality customer service
- communicate effectively

(4) Resource Implications

The following resources should be made available:

- access to clients, sources of information and resources for the conduct internal quality assurance of the assessment process

(5) Method of Assessment

- a range of appropriate assessment methods/evidence gathering techniques may be used to determine competency
- an integrated approach to assessment may also be employed

(6) Context of Assessment

Assessment should occur on the job or in a simulated workplace.

CRITICAL EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS

CSEASV0055A: Evaluate the assessment system

Competency Descriptor:

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to evaluate an external or internal assessment system.

Competency Field:

Assessment Verification

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Plan a system evaluation	1.1	The purpose and role of the evaluation is identified and confirmed with client and stakeholders.
		1.2	The system is defined in terms of location, purpose, and personnel.
		1.3	The needs of the stakeholders of the system are identified and prioritised.
		1.4	The necessary resources for the evaluation are identified, obtained or developed.
		1.5	The evaluation plan is agreed to by stakeholders.
		1.6	The evidence required for making decisions of system improvement is established.
		1.7	Evidence gathering instruments, procedures and sources of information are identified, developed and validated.
		1.8	Cost effective methods utilising an appropriate evaluation model are linked to the purpose of the evaluation.
2.	Conduct the evaluation	2.1	Evidence is collected in accordance with agreed evaluation procedures.
		2.2	The evidence is interpreted at the individual and aggregate levels and strengths and weaknesses of the system are identified.
3.	Report on evaluation findings	3.1	The evaluation findings are accurately communicated in accordance with stakeholders requirements.
		3.2	Reports are presented in a timely manner.

- | | | | |
|----|---------------------------------|-----|---|
| 4. | Develop intervention strategies | 4.1 | Evaluation findings are reviewed to identify gaps in the assessment system. |
| | | 4.2 | Appropriate intervention strategies are determined, implemented and documented. |

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement explains the scope and context of the unit of competency allowing for differences between workplaces. The scope of variables chosen for training and assessment requirements will depend on the particular work situation.

The following variables may be present

Purposes of assessment may include:

- diagnosing performance
- classifying an employee
- confirming an employee's competency for the purpose of career advancement/job level
- awarding a qualification or statement of attainment
- confirming progress in learning
- recognition of current competency/recognition of prior learning

Policies may include:

- purposes of training and assessment
- human resource management issues
- what and who is to be trained and assessed
- timing of training and assessments
- links with human resource functions
- evidence types
- assessment methods
- record keeping requirements
- recognition of current competencies/recognition of prior learning
- development costs and resources
- evaluation

Clients needs may include:

- increased productivity
- increased enterprise profitability
- attainment of specified industry or enterprise competencies
- achievement of community priorities
- achievement of government priorities
- licensing or accreditation requirements
- personal needs

Stakeholders may include:

- industry/professional/associations
- trainers/teachers and assessors
- team leaders/supervisors
- managers/employers
- training and assessment coordinators
- participants/employees/learners
- technical experts
- government regulatory bodies
- union/employee representatives
- consultative committees
- relevant industry training advisory bodies
- funding bodies
- Training/Recognition Authorities

Validating the data gathering process may include:

- detailing what is to be measured
- assessing the capacity of the instrument to collect sufficient, valid, reliable and current information
- detailing how the instrument or procedure is administered, scored and interpreted in the particular evaluation
- presenting both qualitative and quantitative evidence that justifies the use of the particular instrument or procedure
- defending the validity of the use and interpretation of the information provided by the instrument or procedure

Resources may include:

- human personnel required to carry out the evaluation
- physical resources (equipment, machines materials/documents, facilities, assessment tools)
- financial
- space,
- location

Report Formats may include:

- written reports
- oral presentations
- audiovisual reports
- combination of the above

Summarising quantitative information may involve:

- charts
- tables
- reports
- videos
- oral presentations
- development of visual presentations including computer generated visuals and overhead transparencies

Operational constraints may include:

- time, resources and locations available
- cost of evidence gathering strategies
- availability of stakeholders for review and feedback
- government, organisational, industry requirements and procedures
- collective bargaining agreements

Types of evidence to be collected may include:

- affective (e.g. satisfaction with the program)
- cognitive (e.g. knowledge or skill gain)
- performance or behaviour (e.g. quality of work, productivity)

Evaluation methodology and report may include:

- Selection of appropriate evaluation models

Evidence gathering instruments and procedures may include:

- survey instruments (delphi, questionnaires, diaries, logs, attitude scales, diagnostics)
- interview schedules and records
- observations

Sources of information may include:

- industry/enterprise competency standards, including international information
- training packages
- curriculum and other training program information
- licensing requirements
- government legislation, policies and practices
- job descriptions
- observations of competent workers
- enterprise skills audit reports
- industry skills audit reports
- workplace conditions, policies and standard operating procedures
- benchmarking reports
- industry publications or reports
- market needs analysis reports
- quality assurance procedures

Factors to consider when developing the evaluation plan with stakeholders include:

- responsibility of appropriate personnel for conducting and participating in evaluations
- evaluation criteria
- responsibilities for implementation of the evaluation plans
- means of protection of participants
- agreement for data collection, storage and retrieval
- procedures for editing and disseminating reports
- agreement of the financing of the evaluation

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Assessment requires evidence of the following products:

- description of client and stakeholders
- evaluation plan
- list and review of information relevant to evaluation
- description of evaluation method selected
- evidence gathering instruments and procedures
- evaluation report, including any proposed changes
- documented intervention strategies

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- how client, stakeholders were identified
- why the evaluation of the system was proposed
- how the evaluation plan was developed and confirmed with client and stakeholders
- why particular evaluation model and evidence gathering instruments were selected
- how the evaluation was conducted
- how the evaluation report was drafted and confirmed with client and stakeholders
- how any changes to the system are to be implemented

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and SkillsKnowledge

Knowledge of:

- program evaluation models
- NCTVET assessment guidelines

Skills

The ability to:

- plan own work including predicting consequences and identifying improvements
- comply with requirements for copyright and other regulatory requirements
- collect and interpret information relevant with the unit and communicate with client, stakeholders and others
- apply relevant workplace policies and procedures and any related legislation or regulatory requirements

(4) Resource Implications

- access to clients, stakeholders, information and resources needed to address the required skills and knowledge and to conduct an evaluation of a training and assessment system

(5) Method of Assessment

Review of a portfolio containing the following:

- description of client and stakeholders
- evaluation plan
- list and review of information relevant to evaluation
- description of evaluation method selected
- evidence gathering instruments and procedures
- evaluation report, including any proposed changes

Questioning – oral/written relating to:

- how client, stakeholders were identified
- why the evaluation of the system was proposed
- how the evaluation plan was developed and confirmed with client and stakeholders
- why particular evaluation model and evidence gathering instruments were selected
- how the evaluation was conducted
- how the evaluation report was drafted and confirmed with client and stakeholders
- how any changes to the system are to be implemented

(6) Context of Assessment

Assessment may occur on the job or in a simulated workplace.

CSEASV0045A: Conduct external quality assurance of the assessment process

Competency Descriptor:

This unit deals with the knowledge and skills required to externally evaluate the internal assessment process and carry out other related external verification or moderation activities.

Competency Field: Assessment Verification

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Monitor the internal quality assurance process	1.1	The organization's arrangements for auditing internal assessments are monitored.
		1.2	The monitoring procedures that the awarding body specifies are planned and applied.
		1.3	Chosen assessment methods are monitored to determine how effective they are against the required outcomes.
		1.4	Internal administration and records are monitored for accuracy.
		1.5	The criteria used for choosing assessors are monitored.
		1.6	Recommendations are made as to how the organisation can comply with all relevant audit processes and procedures.
		1.7	A review is carried out on how the internal audit system is evaluated to ensure the organisation can comply with all required processes and procedures.
2.	Verify the quality of assessment	2.1	Checks are made to ensure that assessors and internal verifiers/auditors have the technical and vocational experience necessary to assess the agreed standards.
		2.2	The quality of induction and support procedures for assessors are monitored.
		2.3	Checks are conducted to ensure that assessors have applied relevant health, safety and environmental protection procedures, as well as equality and access criteria when carrying out assessments.

- 2.4 The decisions made by a number of assessors are checked to ensure that each is applying the assessment requirements consistently over time, with different candidates and in different places if necessary.
 - 2.5 Assessors' records are reviewed for accuracy, efficiency and security.
 - 2.6 Checks are made to ensure that assessors have been given accurate and helpful feedback on their assessment decisions and performance.
 - 2.7 Concerns over assessors' decisions are identified and reviewed with internal verifiers and auditors.
 - 2.8 Results of the audit are recorded using agreed procedures and documents.
 - 2.9 Corrective actions are discussed, agreed on and established.
 - 2.10 The agreed complaints and appeals procedures required by the awarding body are followed where improvement and other related issues have not been resolved.
 - 2.11 Good practice is identified and highlighted and positive feedback given.
 - 2.12 The awarding body is given full and accurate reports on the internal assessment process and any recommendations for changes.
3. Provide information, advice and support on the internal quality assurance of assessment processes
- 3.1 Early and regular contacts are made with internal verifiers/auditors at all stages when developing assessment systems and procedures.
 - 3.2 Concerns over the internal audit processes are identified and reviewed with internal verifiers/auditors.
 - 3.3 Checks are made to ensure that effective administrative arrangements are developed to support the internal audit and assessment process.
 - 3.4 Agreement is made on the methods to be used to externally audit internal assessment.

- 3.5 Information and advice is given on the timing and nature of external audit arrangements.
 - 3.6 The assessment centre is given details of the people to be interviewed or involved in the audit process.
 - 3.7 Any issues in understanding the criteria and requirements of the awarding or accrediting body are identified and explained.
 - 3.8 Concerns about internal audit procedures and assessment decisions are raised in a clear and constructive manner.
 - 3.9 Constructive and helpful feedback is given on external audit decisions.
 - 3.10 Opportunities to improve internal audits and assessments are identified and advice and support given to put these improvements into practice.
4. Evaluate the effectiveness of external quality assurance of the assessment process
- 4.1 Internal assessment audit information is identified and used to evaluate the systems and procedures of the awarding body.
 - 4.2 Evaluation is carried out on how effective the process of candidate assessment is as part of the internal quality assurance process and report given to the awarding body and internal auditors.
 - 4.3 Recording and administrative arrangements are reviewed against information needed by the awarding body.
 - 4.4 Contributions are made to the awarding body's reviews of external auditing arrangements.

RANGE STATEMENTS

The Range Statement adds definition to the unit by elaborating critical or significant aspects of the performance requirements of the unit. The Range Statement establishes the range of indicative meanings or applications of these requirements in different operating contexts and conditions.

For this unit the following variables may be present:

Organisational/legal/ethical requirements may relate to:

- NCTVET requirements in assessment/registration
- Assessment specifications of Training Packages
- clauses defining assessment operations in award and enterprise agreements and relevant industrial arrangements
- confidentiality and privacy requirements
- relevant legislation from all levels of government that affect training and/or assessment operations
- environmental issues
- equal opportunity requirements
- industrial relations and anti-discrimination
- relevant industry codes of practice
- reporting procedures for assessment results
- certification procedures/requirements
- recording and reporting assessment results
- maintaining and retrieving assessment information
- quality assurance and/or procedures manuals
- goals, objectives, plans, systems and processes
- organisational policies/guidelines
- access and equity principles and practice
- ethical standards
- collaborative/partnership arrangements
- OHS policies, procedures and programs

Assessment strategy may encompass:

- the identification of the competency standards forming the qualification and
- interpretation of the packaging rules of the qualification, where part of a Training Package
- interpretation of the competency standards as the benchmarks for assessment
- application of Training Package Assessment Guidelines, where part of a
- arrangements for recognition of existing
- competence, including provision of guidance and assistance to candidates in gathering and evaluating evidence
- determination of assessment methods for identified competency standards
- selection of assessment tools for identified competency standards
- organisational arrangements for assessment, including physical and human resources, roles and responsibilities and partnership arrangements (where relevant)
- nominated quality assurance mechanisms
- identified risk management strategies

Assessment system policies and procedures may include:

- rational and purpose of competency-based assessment
- assessment records/data management/information management
- recognition of current competency/recognition of prior learning/credit arrangements
- assessors - needs, qualifications, maintaining currency in related field, contract
- assessment reporting procedures
- assessment appeals
- candidate grievances/complaints
- validation
- evaluation/internal audit
- costs/resourcing
- access and equity/reasonable adjustment
- partnership arrangements
- links with human resource or industrial relations systems
- links with overall quality management system
- assistance by third party - interpreter

Ethical standards include:

- following assessment system organisational policies and procedures
- demonstrating inclusiveness
- following standards relating to assessment
- ensuring assessment is guided by the principles of assessment and the rules of evidence
- security of information
- confidentiality and privacy requirements

Communication strategies may include:

- email
- memos and correspondence
- meetings
- video conferencing
- e-based learning
- focus groups

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Candidate must demonstrate the ability to:

- monitor the internal quality assurance process
- verify the quality of assessment
- provide information, advice and support on the internal quality assurance of assessment processes
- evaluate the effectiveness of external quality assurance of the assessment process

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and SkillsKnowledge

Knowledge of:

- How to monitor and review individual candidate's assessments
- procedures for ensuring that individual assessors are consistent and accurate in their assessment judgments over time with different candidates
- How to monitor internal assessor standardization procedures
- recording procedures
- different ways of collecting evidence and how to monitor methods chosen
- How to monitor the assessment evidence to check accuracy and consistency but not to change assessment decisions
- How to review arrangements for adapting assessment procedures to meet individual needs
- sampling activities to help the monitoring and review of the internal audit process
- How to monitor access to valid and reliable assessment for all candidates against the agreed standards
- administrative arrangements to support internal assessment audits
- How to ensure that clear and effective selection criteria have been applied for choosing assessors
- How to evaluate the technical and vocational experience of assessors against the agreed standards and assessment procedures
- How to monitor assessors' consistency and accuracy over time and with different candidates
- How to evaluate the quality of feedback given to assessors

Skill

The ability to:

- monitor and review individual candidate's assessments
- monitor procedures for ensuring that individual assessors are consistent and accurate in their assessment judgments over time with different candidates
- monitor recording procedures
- monitor the progress of, and support arrangements for candidates
- use different ways of collecting evidence
- monitor the assessment evidence
- review arrangements for adapting assessment procedures to meet individual needs
- plan sampling activities to help the monitoring and review of the internal audit process
- monitor access to valid and reliable assessment for all candidates against the agreed standards
- review administrative arrangements to support internal assessment audits
- evaluate the technical and vocational experience of assessors against the agreed standards and assessment procedures
- monitor assessors' consistency and accuracy over time and with different candidates
- evaluate the quality of feedback given to assessors
- give effective feedback to internal auditors and assessors on the external audit decisions
- monitor procedures for equal access to fair assessment in line with relevant legislation
- identify and apply the requirements of examining and awarding bodies

Underpinning Knowledge and Skills (Cont'd)Knowledge

Knowledge of:

- how to identify and present concerns about internal audit decisions in a constructive manner
- how to give effective feedback to internal auditors and assessors on the external audit decisions
- procedures for equal access to fair assessment in line with relevant legislation
- the requirements of examining and awarding bodies
- how to set out and explain the requirements of external assessment auditing and the information needed to do this
- how to check that arrangements for confidentiality and data protection are adequate during the assessment process
- how to identify and apply appropriate complaints and appeals procedures in the correct order
- how to ensure that internal systems meet the monitoring and inspection requirements of external agencies
- complaints and appeals procedures

Skill

The ability to:

- set out and explain the requirements of external assessment auditing and the information needed to do this
- identify and apply appropriate complaints and appeals procedures in the correct order

(4) Resource Implications

The following resources should be made available:

- access to clients, sources of information and resources for the conduct of external quality assurance of the assessment process

(5) Method of Assessment

- a range of appropriate assessment methods/evidence gathering techniques may be used to determine competency
- an integrated approach to assessment may also be employed

(6) Context of Assessment

Assessment should occur on the job or in a simulated workplace.

CRITICAL EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS

Three levels of performance denote level of competency required to perform a task. These levels do not relate to the NCTVET Qualification Framework. They relate to the seven areas of generic competency that underpin effective workplace practices.

CSETDA0004A: Analyse competency requirements

Competency Descriptor:

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to analyse and document competency requirements in preparation for training/assessment. It covers the identification and review of relevant sources of information, and the development of an implementation plan.

Competency Field:

Education and Training

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Identify client competency needs	1.1	The client and stakeholders are consulted to identify and document client competency needs.
		1.2	Competency needs are defined using information collected from stakeholders.
		1.3	The needs are grouped according to type, priority and possible solutions.
2.	Undertake needs analysis	2.1	Developed a plan for the needs analysis.
		2.2	Sources of information in relation to competency needs and the scope of the competencies are identified.
		2.3	Data gathering methods are adapted/ developed for efficient, reliable and valid information collection.
		2.4	Any requirements of qualifications or assessment or training recognition bodies are identified.
		2.5	Information is collected, organised and analysed to identify competency components.
		2.6	Groupings of competencies are established to suit the requirements for competency development of the target group(s).
3.	Confirm findings of research	3.1	Consultations with stakeholders are conducted to verify research accuracy, use ability within the intended context(s) and validity for the target group(s).
		3.2	Priorities for implementation of competency development are determined in terms of business goals, individual and organisational effectiveness, resource implications, cost benefit and lead time requirements.

		3.3	Identified priorities and competencies are documented and validated by stakeholders.
4.	Document competency requirements	4.1	Competency requirements are documented in a manner appropriate to client needs.
		4.2	Combinations of competencies are identified to match the required client needs.
		4.3	Developed an implementation plan.
5	Validate competencies and implementation plan	5.1	Adjustments to documentation are made as required.
		5.2	Documentation is approved through established processes.
		5.3	Changes in related procedures, policies and processes are endorsed by stakeholders for implementation.

RANGE STATEMENT

Stakeholders may include:

- industry/professional/trade associations
- trainers/teachers and assessors
- team leaders/managers/employers
- training and assessment coordinators
- participants/employees/learners
- technical experts
- government regulatory bodies
- union/employee representatives
- consultative committees
- relevant industry training advisory bodies
- funding bodies
- Statutory Training/Recognition Authorities e.g. NCTVET

Clients needs may include:

- increased productivity
- increased enterprise profitability
- attainment of specified industry or enterprise competencies
- achievement of community priorities
- achievement of government priorities
- regulation or licensing requirements
- personal needs

Competency needs may include:

- adaptation of industry competency standards to meet business goals
- design or review of training program(s)
- identification of productivity and other improvements
- access and equity considerations
- human resources considerations (e.g. classification structure)

Sources of information may include:

- industry/enterprise competency standards, including international information
- training packages
- curriculum and other training program information
- licensing requirements
- government legislation, policies and practices
- job descriptions
- observations of competent workers
- enterprise skills audit reports
- industry skills audit reports
- workplace conditions, policies and standard operating procedures
- benchmarking reports
- industry publications or reports
- market needs analysis reports
- quality assurance procedures

Needs analysis plan may include:

- outcomes
- resources-human and physical
- timelines
- personnel and responsibilities
- target group(s)
- sources of information

Implementation plan may include:

- marketing and promotion
- resource allocation
- timelines

Factors affecting the combination of competencies based on clients needs may be:

- business goals of the client organisation
- job roles
- skills related career paths
- classifications
- position descriptions
- training programs
- appraisal requirements
- licensing or accreditation conditions

Data gathering methods may include:

- survey methods
- interviews
- delphi procedures (Using a team of experts)
- nominal group techniques
- concept mapping
- focus groups
- job and task analysis
- analysis of assessment and/or training records

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence.

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Assessment requires evidence of the following products to be collected:

- Documented client competency needs.
- Competency needs analysis plan.
- Report of research into competency needs.
- Classification of need according to type, priority and possible solution.
- Documented competencies.
- Implementation plan.

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- How the client and stakeholders were consulted to identify competency requirements.
- How the needs analysis and competencies proposed will contribute to organisational effectiveness.
- Why particular data gathering method(s) was used.
- How the data gathering methods and any other instrument(s) used were checked for validity, reliability, cost-effectiveness, administration ease, acceptability and appropriateness.
- How the implementation plan was developed.

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and Skills

Knowledge

Knowledge of:

- any relevant competency standards, assessment guidelines and National Qualifications Framework (NQF)
- relationship of the competencies, any industrial agreements and skill based classification systems with organisation effectiveness
- understanding of data gathering and needs analysis theory and methodology
- language and literacy skills required to comprehend sources of information and to prepare required documentation in a clear and comprehensible format

Skills

The ability to:

- planning of own work including predicting consequences and identifying improvements
- compliance with requirements for copyright and other regulatory requirements
- communication skills appropriate to the culture of the workplace

(4) Resource Implications

- Access to relevant clients, stakeholders and sources of information required in needs analysis.

(5) Method of Assessment

Evidence may be collected in a variety of ways including:

- Review of a portfolio containing the following documents:
 - Client competency needs
 - Competency needs analysis plan
 - Report of research into competency needs
 - Classification of need according to type, priority and possible solution
 - Documented competencies
 - Implementation plan.
- Questioning – oral/written relating to:
 - How the client and stakeholders were consulted to identify competency requirements
 - How the needs analysis and competencies proposed will contribute to organisational effectiveness
 - Why particular data gathering method(s) was used
 - How the data gathering methods and any other instrument(s) used were checked for validity, reliability, cost-effectiveness, administration ease, acceptability and appropriateness
 - How the implementation plan was developed.

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence.

CSETDA0074A: Design and establish the assessment system

Competency Descriptor:

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to design and establish an assessment system.

Competency Field:

Education and Training

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Determine client needs	1.1	The needs of the client are identified.
		1.2	Client services are determined and established to stakeholders' satisfaction.
		1.3	Stakeholder relationships are maintained through a range of communication mechanisms.
		1.4	A service support structure is established and made known to clients.
2.	Determine assessment boundaries	2.1	The purpose(s) of the assessment system is established through consultation with the client and other stakeholders.
		2.2	A policy document is developed in consultation with stakeholders and clients.
		2.3	The financial, physical and human resources available to support the system are determined within agreed quality assurance procedures are identified.
		2.4	The system is verified to take into account the realities and constraints of particular contexts.
3.	Establish assessment system features	3.1	The key operational features of the system are determined in consultation with stakeholders
		3.2	The key operational features of the system are verified for fairness, equity and access with appropriate personnel and agreed features documented.
4.	Match needs with resources	4.1	Applicable competency standards or other performance standards are identified.
		4.2	The expertise and roles of internal and external individuals and organisations/partners are identified.
		4.3	A budget, detailing development costs, implementation and maintenance costs of the proposed assessment system, is developed in consultation with appropriate personnel, including partner organisations, if applicable.

- | | | | |
|----|--|-----|--|
| 5. | Design and develop record system | 5.1 | A record keeping system is designed which is secure, confidential and easy to administer, yet allows the storage of complex or detailed information. |
| | | 5.2 | The record keeping system is designed to allow easy tracking of persons' progress towards the attainment of qualifications, units of competency or of learning outcomes. |
| | | 5.3 | The record keeping system is verified to allow for appropriate certification requirements, where relevant. |
| | | 5.4 | Adherence to legislative requirements and procedures are established which enable the record keeping system to be updated with ease when required. |
| | | 5.5 | The record keeping system is verified for consistency with accepted enterprise / industry procedures for record keeping. |
| 6. | Establish procedures for the review of assessment | 6.1 | Review procedures are designed after consultation with stakeholders and verified to allow for fair and consistent responses to grievances. |
| | | 6.2 | Review procedures are designed to ensure that relevant legislative and regulatory requirements are met. |
| 7. | Select and provide for training and support of assessors | 7.1 | Selection criteria for assessors is established in consultation with appropriate personnel. |
| | | 7.2 | Appropriate training strategies or programs for assessors to acquire or update competencies are identified, modified or developed. |
| | | 7.3 | Training programs selected or developed for assessors are verified to meet the Assessment and Workplace Training Competency Standards and other required competencies. |
| 8. | Establish quality assurance procedures | 8.1 | Quality assurance procedures, including verification processes are developed in consultation with system stakeholders. |
| | | 8.2 | The verification processes involve a representative sample of assessment activities and make effective use of resources. |
| | | 8.3 | The quality assurance procedures are piloted for fairness, efficiency and effectiveness. |

- 8.4 The quality assurance procedures are documented and distributed to assessors/trainers and other appropriate personnel.
- 8.5 Procedures are established to determine the level of compliance with the assessment system.

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement explains the scope and context of the unit of competency allowing for differences between workplaces. The scope of variables chosen for training and assessment requirements will depend on the particular work situation.

The following variables may be present:

Stakeholders may include:

- industry/professional/trade associations
- trainers/teachers and assessors
- team leaders/managers/employers
- training and assessment coordinators
- participants/employees/learners
- technical experts
- government regulatory bodies
- union/employee representatives
- consultative committees
- relevant industry training advisory bodies
- funding bodies
- Statutory Training/Recognition Authorities e.g. HEART/NTA, NCTVET

Clients needs may include:

- increased productivity
- increased enterprise profitability
- attainment of specified industry or enterprise competencies
- achievement of community priorities
- achievement of government priorities
- personal needs

Key operational features may include:

- employee classification, remuneration and progression
- relevant commonwealth/state or territory legislative and regulatory requirements
- arrangements for the issuing of
- qualifications or statements of attainment
- and for recognising and recording current competencies
- partnership arrangements

Operational constraints may include:

- time available
- relative cost
- availability of stakeholders and other personnel
- budgetary constraints
- geographical and resource constraints

Purpose of assessment may include:

- diagnosing performance
- classifying an employee
- confirming an employees' competency for the purpose of career advancement
- awarding a qualification or statement of attainment
- confirming progress in learning
- recognition of current competency/recognition of prior learning

Policy may include:

- purposes of assessment
- human resource management issues
- what and who is to be assessed
- timing of assessments
- links with other human resources functions
- appeal/review mechanisms
- criteria for making decisions of competent, or not yet competent
- number of assessors
- allowable adjustments to the assessment procedure
- record keeping requirements
- recognition of prior learning/recognition of current competencies
- development costs and resources
- evaluation

Sources of information may include:

- industry/enterprise competency standards
- training packages
- curriculum and other training program information
- licensing requirements
- job descriptions
- discussions with client group
- observations of competent workers
- enterprise skills audit reports
- industry skills audit reports
- standard operating procedures
- benchmarking reports
- industry publications or reports
- government reports
- market needs analysis reports

Characteristics of persons being assessed may include:

- language, literacy and numeracy needs
- cultural, educational and general knowledge background
- gender , gender, physical ability
- level of confidence
- previous experience with the topic
- experience in assessment

Quality assurance procedures may include may include:

- conduct of regular internal and external reviews (persons being assessed/trained, peer, self and supervisor)
- professional development of participants
- sampling and evaluation of implementation of competencies
- assessment of the assessors'/trainers' competencies
- modifications of the competency system based on evaluation and reviews
- promotion of regular networking amongst developers, assessors/trainers and peer review amongst persons responsible for planning, conducting and reviewing assessments/training within the system

Record system may include:

- paper-based system, such as forms on checklists
- computer-based system using magnetic or optical storage
- combination of both paper and computer-based system

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Assessment requires evidence of the following products to be collected:

- Assessment policy
- Description of the client and stakeholders
- Description of assessment system boundaries
- Report on sources of information for determining assessment system
- Report on the design, development, maintenance and security of the record keeping system
- Summary of available financial, physical and human resources
- Documented review procedures of assessment activities
- Documented assessor training and professional development strategies
- Documentation of quality assurance mechanisms.

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- Why particular assessment system features were incorporated
- How the record keeping system was designed to meet security and access requirements
- How fairness, equity and accessibility of the system were verified
- Why and how the selection criteria for assessors was chosen
- How the review procedures were verified
- How the quality assurance procedures were established, verified and implemented
- How the currency of records and ease of retrieval are ensured
- Why procedures for promoting and communicating the assessment system were chosen/developed.

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and Skills

Knowledge

Knowledge of:

- language and literacy skills to comprehend sources of information and to prepare required documentation in a clear and comprehensible format
- relevant industry/enterprise competency or performance standards
- the Assessment and Workplace Training Competency Standards and Assessment Guidelines
- record keeping systems particularly related to assessment
- quality assurance methodology
- compliance with requirements for copyright and other regulatory requirements
- client work systems and equipment
- review/evaluation methodology, particularly as it relates to assessment

Underpinning Knowledge and Skills (Cont'd)Skills

The ability to:

- identification and correct use of equipment, processes and procedures
- planning own work including predicting consequences and identifying improvements
- communication skills appropriate to the culture of the workplace

(4) Resource Implications

- access to relevant clients, stakeholders and sources of information required to address required skills and knowledge and to design and establish an assessment system

(5) Method of Assessment

Review of a portfolio containing the following

- Assessment policy
- Description of the client and stakeholders
- Description of assessment system boundaries
- Report on sources of information for determining assessment system
- Report on the design, development, maintenance and security of the record keeping system
- Summary of available financial, physical and human resources
- Documented review procedures of assessment activities
- Documented assessor training and professional development strategies
- Documentation of quality assurance mechanisms.

Questioning – oral/written relating to:

- Why particular assessment system features were incorporated
- How the record keeping system was designed to meet security and access requirements
- How fairness, equity and accessibility of the system were verified
- Why and how the selection criteria for assessors was chosen
- How the review procedures were verified

CSETDP0014A: Train small groups

Competency Descriptor:

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to plan, deliver and review training provided for the purposes of developing competency on a one-to-one or small group basis.

Competency Field:

Education and Training

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Prepare for training	1.1	Specific needs for training are identified and confirmed through consultation with appropriate personnel.
		1.2	Training objectives are matched to identified competency development needs.
		1.3	Training approaches are planned and documented.
2.	Deliver training	2.1	Training is conducted in a safe and accessible environment.
		2.2	Training delivery methods are selected appropriate to training participant(s) needs, trainer availability, location and resources.
		2.3	Strategies and techniques are employed which facilitate the learning process.
		2.4	Objectives of the training, sequence of activities and assessment processes are discussed with training participant(s).
		2.5	A systematic approach is taken to training and the approach is revised and modified to meet specific needs of training participant(s).
3.	Provide opportunities for practices	3.1	Practice opportunities are provided to ensure that the participant achieves the components of competency.
		3.2	Various methods for encouraging learning are implemented to provide diverse approaches to meet the individual needs of participants.
4.	Review training	4.1	Participants are encouraged to self evaluate performance and identify areas for improvement.
		4.2	Participants' readiness for assessment is monitored and assistance provided in the collection of evidence of satisfactory performance.

- 4.3 Training is evaluated in the context of self-assessment, participant feedback, supervisor comments and measurements against objectives.
- 4.4 Training details are recorded according to enterprise and legislative requirements.
- 4.5 Results of evaluation are used to guide further training.

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement explains the scope and context of the unit of competency allowing for differences between workplaces. The scope of variables chosen for training and assessment requirements will depend on the particular work situation.

The following variables may be present:

Relevant information to identify training needs includes:

- industry/enterprise or other performance competency standards
- endorsed components of relevant industry training package
- industry/workplace training practices
- job descriptions
- results of training needs analyses
- business plans of the organisation which identify skill development requirements
- standard operating and/or other workplace procedures

Training delivery methods and opportunities for practice may include:

- presentations
- demonstrations
- explanations
- problem solving
- mentoring
- experiential learning
- group work
- on the job coaching
- job rotation
- a combination of the above

Appropriate personnel may include:

- team leaders/supervisors/ technical experts
- managers/employers
- training and assessment coordinators
- training participants
- representative government regulatory bodies
- union/employee representatives
- consultative committees
- assessors

Components of competency include:

- task skills
- task management skills
- contingency management skills
- job/role environment skills
- transfer and application of skills and knowledge of new contents

Training sessions may include:

- one to one demonstration
- small group demonstration (2 to 5 persons)

Characteristics of training participant may include information in relation to:

- language, literacy and numeracy needs
- cultural, language, and educational background
- gender
- physical ability
- level of confidence, nervousness or anxiety
- age
- previous experience with the topic
- experience in training and assessment

Resources may include:

- time
- location
- personnel
- materials and equipment
- OHS and other workplace requirements
- enterprise/industry standard operating procedures
- finances/costs

Strategies and techniques may include:

- active listening
- targeted questioning
- points of clarification
- group discussions

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence.

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Assessment requires evidence of the following products to be collected:

- Description of the specific training need and required competency outcomes.
- Outline of the training approach and steps to be followed.
- Description of training participant(s) and delivery method(s) to be used.
- Specific resources required.
- Outline of the evidence to be collected for monitoring training participant progress.
- Trainer's self assessment of training delivery.
- Participant evaluation of training delivery.
- Evaluation of review comments against plan of training.
- Records/documentation for monitoring progress of training participant(s).
- May be collected using proformas or template.

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- how the specific training need was determined
- how the sequence of the training was determined
- how appropriate personnel were identified
- why particular delivery method(s) were selected
- how the characteristics of training participant(s) as identified
- how the resource requirements were established
- how participant progress was monitored
- why and how the training resources were selected

How appropriate personnel confirmed training arrangements

- how participant(s) were informed of:
 - intended training outcomes
 - competencies to be achieved
 - on and/or off the job practice opportunities
 - benefits of practices
 - learning activities and tasks
 - assessment tasks and requirements
- how constructive feedback was provided to training participant about progress toward competency to be acquired
- how training participant readiness for assessment was determined and confirmed
- how records were maintained to ensure confidentiality, accuracy and security

Evidence may be provided verbally or in written form.

Interdependent assessment of units

This unit may be assessed in conjunction with other units that form part of a job function.

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and SkillsKnowledge

Knowledge of:

- competency in the units being taught
- workplace application of the relevant competencies
- identification of evidence of competency
- planning of own work including predicting consequences and identifying improvements
- application of relevant workplace policies (e.g. OHS) and any relevant legislative or regulatory requirements
- correct use of equipment, and any other processes and procedures appropriate for the training
- ethical handling of performance issues

Skills

The ability to:

- Language, literacy and numeracy required skills to:
 - conduct discussions and ask probing questions to review the training
 - gather information (in spoken or written form) for review purposes
 - make verbal recommendations for delivery of future training
 - adjust language to suit target audience (training participant/appropriate personnel)
 - complete records on training
 - provide verbal feedback & report on training outcomes
 - follow and model examples of written texts
 - promote training in verbal or written form

Communication skills appropriate to the culture of the workplace, appropriate personnel and training participants.

(4) Resource Implications

- Access to records system for training, information, and training participants and supervisory staff (where appropriate).

(5) Method of Assessment

Review of a portfolio containing the following

- Description of the specific training need and required competency outcomes.
- Outline of the training approach and steps to be followed.
- Description of training participant(s) and delivery method(s) to be used.
- Specific resources required.
- Outline of the evidence to be collected for monitoring training participant progress.
- Trainer's self assessment of training delivery.
- Participant evaluation of training delivery.
- Evaluation of review comments against plan of training.
- Records/documentation for monitoring progress of training participant(s).
May be collected using specially designed forms/templates.

Method of Assessment (Cont'd)

Questioning – oral/written relating to:

- how the specific training need was determined
- how the sequence of the training was determined
- how appropriate personnel were identified
- why particular delivery method(s) were selected
- how the characteristics of training participant(s) as identified
- how the resource requirements were established
- how participant progress was monitored

Questioning – oral/written relating to: (Cont'd)

- why and how the training resources were selected
- how appropriate personnel confirmed training arrangements
- how participant(s) were informed of:
 - intended training outcomes
 - competencies to be achieved
 - on and/or off the job practice opportunities
 - benefits of practices
 - learning activities and tasks
 - assessment tasks and requirements

(6) Context of Assessment

Assessment may occur on the job or in a simulated workplace. Candidate workplace trainers should use competencies relevant to their area of technical expertise.

CRITICAL EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS

Three levels of performance denote level of competency required to perform a task. These levels do not relate to the NCTVET Qualifications Framework. They relate to the seven areas of generic competency that underpin effective workplace practices.

CSETDP0024A: Plan and promote a training program

Competency Descriptor:

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to plan and promote training program. This involves the identification of competencies to meet the needs of a target group and the planning and promotion of appropriate training strategies.

Competency Field:

Education and Training

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Identify the competency needs	1.1	The client, target group and appropriate personnel are identified and required goals and outcomes of the training program are negotiated and confirmed with the client.
		1.2	Relevant competency or other performance standards for the target group are obtained and verified with appropriate personnel.
		1.3	Gaps between the required competencies and current competencies of the target group are determined.
		1.4	Current competencies and any relevant characteristics of each participant in the target group are identified using appropriate investigation methods.
2.	Document training program requirements	2.1	Training program goals are identified to specify required knowledge and skill and links to specified units of competency qualification and/or other standards of performance.
		2.2	Training program documentation specifies the range of workplace applications, activities and tasks that must be undertaken to develop the requisite competencies.
		2.3	Available training programs and resources are customised to meet specific client needs, where required.
		2.4	Appropriate grouping of activities is identified to support formative and summative assessment.
		2.5	Overview of training sessions including appropriate timing and costs is prepared and confirmed with appropriate personnel including those relating to language, literacy and numeracy and specified in documentation.
		2.6	Methods of supporting and guiding participants within the target group are identified and specified.

- | | | | |
|----|----------------------------|-----|---|
| 3. | Identify program resources | 3.1 | Resources required for the program are identified and approved by appropriate personnel and allocated to meet training participants' characteristics are allocated. |
| | | 3.2 | Arrangements are made with personnel required to support the training program. |
| | | 3.3 | A register of training resources is maintained and held in an accessible form. |
| 4. | Promote training | 4.1 | Advice on the development of the training program is provided to appropriate personnel. |
| | | 4.2 | Information on planned training events is made widely available, utilising a variety of methods. |
| | | 4.3 | Promotional activities are monitored for effectiveness in collaboration with the client and appropriate personnel. |

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement explains the scope and context of the unit of competency allowing for differences between workplaces. The scope of variables chosen for training and assessment requirements will depend on the particular work situation.

The following variables may be present:

Clients needs may include:

- increased productivity
- increased enterprise profitability
- attainment of specified industry or enterprise competencies
- achievement of community priorities
- achievement of government priorities
- personal needs

Target group may include:

- employee groups (e.g. particular classification or work area, female employees)
- groups or individuals with special training and/or recognition needs

Training may be:

- on the job
- in a simulated setting
- in a training organisation
- in a combination of locations to suit the units of competency being learned and/or assessed
- in a single site or multi-site operation

Clients may include:

- a department/division
- a work area
- an enterprise or organisation

Information on the required competencies may be collected from:

- industry/enterprise competency standards
- licensing requirements
- standard operating procedures
- job descriptions
- discussions with client group
- enterprise skills audit reports
- industry skills audit reports
- benchmarking reports
- industry publications or reports
- government reports
- market needs analysis reports
- performance appraisals

Appropriate personnel may include:

- team leaders/supervisors/managers/employers
- participant/employee/learner
- technical and subject experts including, language, literacy, numeracy specialists
- government regulatory bodies
- union/employee representatives
- consultative committees
- users of training information such as training providers, employers, human resource departments, and Recognition Authorities
- assessment / training partners
- trainers/teachers and assessors

Training program delivery may involve:

- enterprise workplace based delivery
- training provider based delivery
- community based delivery
- school based delivery
- international programs
- distance/online
- combination of the above

Training program may be based on:

- national industry training packages
- enterprise training packages
- agreed curriculum
- international standards

Target group competencies may be identified by: ‘

- matching enterprise/client needs to available national industry training packages
- reports on assessment of competencies
- enterprise training and assessment record keeping system
- self, peer or supervisor reports

Characteristics of participants may include:

- language, literacy and numeracy needs
- cultural language and education background
- educational background or general knowledge
- gender
- age
- physical ability
- previous experience with the topic
- experience in training and assessment
- level of confidence, nervousness or anxiety

Variables for achieving competency may include:

- characteristics of training participants
- resources (time, location , space, people and costs)
- language, literacy and numeracy issues

Training delivery methods may include:

- face to face
- distance learning
- fixed schedule, partly self paced, all self paced
- trainer centred, participant centred
- real time, time independent
- place dependent, place independent
- interactive (e.g. audio, or video conferencing, computer assisted, discussion)
- mentoring
- active learning
- coaching

Training materials/equipments may include:

- non-endorsed components of a training package
- appropriate technology-computers, projectors etc
- work books
- workshop guides
- background reading materials/documents
- handouts
- industry/enterprise competency standards
- supportive policies and legislation
- specific language, literacy and numeracy support material

Training support may include:

- technical experts (including particular subject and language and literacy specialists)
- equipment
- team leaders/supervisors/managers/employers
- enterprises
- assessment/training partners
- trainers/teachers and assessors
- training and assessment coordinators
- financial

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time and in a range of contexts, and on multiple occasions, involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence.

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Assessment requires evidence of the following products to be collected:

- description of client, target group and appropriate personnel
- analysis of training needs of target group
- documentation on consultations with appropriate personnel throughout the program development phase
- outline of training program goals and supporting documentation including variables which may impact on the achievement of program goals
- documentation on training resources and any other requirements for the training program

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- How client, target group and appropriate personnel were identified
- How required competencies were determined to meet the client needs
- Why there is a need for training as opposed to other non-training alternatives
- How the need for training was verified with appropriate personnel
- How appropriate personnel approved training program resources
- How language, literacy and numeracy issues were taken into consideration in the planning process.

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and SkillsKnowledge

Knowledge of:

- understanding Assessment and Workplace Training Competency Standards and Assessment Guidelines
- relevant competency standards, including industry or enterprise standards of performance
- relationships of competencies to industrial agreements, classification systems and National Qualifications Framework (NQF)
- relevant workplace policies and procedures that apply to that work and (any) related competency in unit(s) of competency relevant to the training program
- understanding of the principles of adult learning and competency based training as applied to the target group and client
- identification and correct use of equipment, processes and procedures relevant to knowledge of methods of training needs analysis and planning
- safety requirements
- sources of assistance for participants requiring language or other particular training support

Skills

The ability to:

- plan own work including predicting consequences and identifying improvements
- apply language, literacy and numeracy skills required to:
 - collect, summarise and interpret relevant information to plan a program
 - communicate in spoken and written form with a range of people in the specified training context
 - adjust spoken and written language to suit audience
 - prepare and/or customise training materials and specified documentation using clear and comprehensible language and layout
 - calculate and estimate costs, time and length of training programs
- be aware of language, literacy and numeracy (LL&N) issues relevant to the context of training and assessment, including current theories on the integration of LL&N with technical training
- Communicate skills appropriate to the culture of the workplace, appropriate personnel and target group.

(4) Resource Implications

- access to target group, potential opportunities to identify training needs of a target group, relevant competencies or other standards of performance and resources

(5) Method of Assessment

Review of a portfolio containing the following

- Description of client, target group and appropriate personnel.
- Analysis of training needs of target group
- Documentation on consultations with appropriate personnel throughout the program development phase.
- Outline of training program goals and supporting documentation including variables which may impact on the achievement of program goals.
- Documentation on training resources and any other requirements for the training program.

Questioning – oral/written relating to:

CSETDP0034A: Plan a series of training sessions

Competency Descriptor:

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to plan a training program for a target group. This involves planning a series of training sessions to meet the identified competency requirements of the target group.

Competency Field:

Education and Training

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Identify training requirements	1.1	Current competencies of the target group are identified.
		1.2	Relevant training package documentation or approved training course documentation is obtained where applicable.
		1.3	Qualification requirements, competencies and/or other performance standards to be attained are interpreted.
		1.4	Training requirements are identified from the gap between the required competencies and the current competencies of the target group.
		1.5	Training requirements are confirmed with appropriate personnel.
2.	Develop outlines of training sessions	2.1	The training program goals, outcomes, performance and underpinning knowledge requirements are identified.
		2.2	The training program requirements, workplace application, activities and tasks required to develop the requisite competencies are analysed.
		2.3	An appropriate range of training delivery methods is identified.
		2.4	Training session outlines are mapped against required competencies and deficiencies are identified and addressed.
		2.5	Special requirements for resources, particular practice requirements and training experiences are documented.
		2.6	Methods of supporting and guiding training participants including appropriate training resources, language literacy and numeracy support are specified.

- | | | | |
|----|----------------------------|-----|--|
| 3. | Develop training materials | 3.1 | Available materials to support the training program are checked for relevance and appropriateness in terms of the language, style, characteristics of training participants and copyright. |
| | | 3.2 | Existing materials are customised or resources are developed to enhance the learning capability of training participants to achieve in the delivery setting. |
| | | 3.2 | Instructions for use of learning materials and any required equipment are provided. |
| | | 3.4 | Copyright laws are observed. |
| | | 3.5 | Documentation, resources and materials developed or used are clear and comprehensible. |
| 4. | Develop training sessions | 4.1 | Training session plans are developed to meet the goals of the training program. |
| | | 4.2 | Opportunities are created within training session design for participants to manage own competency acquisition and apply the relevant competencies in practice. |
| | | 4.3 | Session plans identified delivery methods which are appropriate for: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the competency to be achieved• training program's goals• training participants' characteristics• language, literacy and numeracy skill level of training participants• learning resources and facilities to be used• equipment and consumable resources available• industry/enterprise/workplace contexts and requirements• each outlined training session |
| | | 4.4 | Training sessions are designed to measure participant progress towards the program goals. |
| | | 4.5 | Sequence and timing of the training sessions are documented. |
| 5. | Arrange resources | 5.1 | Resources required for the training sessions are identified and, where special access is required, approved by appropriate personnel. |
| | | 5.2 | Appropriate training locations are identified and arranged. |

- 5.3 Arrangements are made with (any) additional personnel required to support the training program.
- 5.4 The training environment arranged is safe, accessible and suitable for the acquisition of the identified competencies.
- 5.5 Learning resources, documentation on required competencies, assessment procedures and information on available support for training participants is organised and held in an accessible form.

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement explains the scope and context of the unit of competency allowing for differences between workplaces. The scope of variables chosen for training and assessment requirements will depend on the particular work situation.

The following variables may be present

Training may be conducted:

- on the job
- in a simulated setting
- in a training organisation
- in a combination of locations to suit the units of competency being learned and/or assessed
- in a single site or multi site operation
- in a work environment

Target group may include:

- employee groups (e.g.; particular classification or work area, female employees)
- groups or individuals with special training and/or recognition needs

Training programs may be based on:

- national industry training packages
- enterprise training packages
- national, state and local curriculum
- enterprise based standards, standards of performance or curriculum
- international standards
- international programs

Target group competencies may be identified by:

- reports on assessment of competencies
- content analysis of curriculum vitae
- enterprise training and assessment record keeping system
- industry training and assessment recording system
- self, peer or supervisor reports

Variables for achieving competency include:

- characteristics of training participants
- resources (time, location , space, people and costs)
- language, literacy and numeracy issues

Training sessions may involve:

- theory
- demonstration
- combination of the two

Appropriate personnel may include:

- trainers/teachers and assessors
- team leaders/supervisors/managers/employers
- participant/employee/learner
- technical /subject experts
- government regulatory bodies
- union/employee representatives
- consultative committees users of training information such as training providers, employers, human resource departments
- Training/Recognition Authorities
- language, literacy, numeracy specialists
- assessment/training partners

Characteristics of participants include:

- language, literacy and numeracy needs
- cultural and language background
- educational background or general knowledge
- gender
- age
- physical ability
- previous experience with the topic
- experience in training and assessment
- level of confidence, nervousness or anxiety
- work organisation or roster

Materials may include:

- non-endorsed components of an industry training package
- work books
- language, literacy and numeracy support/integrated training materials
- workshop guides
- background reading materials/documents
- handouts
- industry/enterprise competency standards
- supportive policies and legislation

Training programs may involve:

- enterprise based delivery
- provider based delivery
- fee for service
- local, state or national curricula
- community based delivery
- school based delivery
- international programs
- combination of the above

Training delivery methods include:

- face to face
- distance
- fixed schedules partly self paced, all self paced
- trainer centred, participant centred
- real time, time independent
- place dependent, place independent
- interactive (e.g. audio or video conferencing, computer assisted, discussion)

Training support may include:

- technical and subject experts
- language and literacy specialists
- team leaders/supervisors/managers/employers
- specific enterprises
- assessment/training partners
- trainers/teachers and assessors
- training and assessment coordinators

Practice opportunities may include:

- on the job
- off the job but located in participant's workplace
- off the job in a special demonstration area
- off the job in an external training room
- work/field placements
- job rotation
- a combination of the above

Range of training delivery methods should be appropriate for the:

- competencies to be achieved
- training program's goals
- characteristics of training participants
- language, literacy and numeracy skill level of training participants
- availability of equipment and resources
- Industry/enterprise contexts and requirements

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, on multiple occasions, and in a range of contexts involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence.

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Assessment requires evidence of the following products to be collected:

- description of target group, characteristics of training participants and appropriate personnel
- outline of training program requirements to deliver training sessions, including any variables to meet to meet the characteristics of training participants
- training session plans
- samples of training materials
- documentation of resources, assessment procedures and support needed in training delivery

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- how appropriate personnel were consulted
- how consultation took place with appropriate how the session plans meet competency requirements and characteristics of training participants
- how the training was made accessible and effective for all training participants
- how training materials and resources were selected
- how training materials were prepared
- why training methods of delivery were selected
- how/why training delivery was modified
- how language, literacy and numeracy issues were taken into consideration in the planning process

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

CSETDP0044A: Deliver training sessions

Competency Descriptor:

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to deliver training sessions as part of a training program.

Competency Field:

Education and Training

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Prepare training participants	1.1	Training program goals and training session outcomes are explained to, and discussed with, training participants.
		1.2	The training program workplace applications, training activities and tasks are explained and confirmed with the training participants.
		1.3	Needs of training participants for competency acquisition are identified.
		1.4	The series of training sessions for the training program are explained to training participants.
		1.5	Ways in which the competencies are to be developed and assessed are explained to, and confirmed with, training participants.
2.	Present training session	2.1	Presentation and training delivery are appropriate to the characteristics of training participants and the development of the competencies.
		2.2	Presentation of training and design of learning activities emphasise and reinforce the dimensions of competency.
		2.3	Presentation and training delivery methods provide variety, encourage participation and reinforce competencies.
		2.4	Spoken language and communication strategies / techniques are used strategically to encourage participation and to achieve the outcomes of training sessions.
		2.4	Training sessions are reviewed and modified as necessary to meet training participants' needs.

- | | | | |
|----|---|------|--|
| 3. | Facilitate individual and group learning | 3.1 | The requirements for the effective participation in the learning process are explained. |
| | | 3.2 | Timely information and advice is given to training participants during training sessions. |
| | | 3.3 | Training presentations are enhanced with the use of appropriate training resources. |
| | | 3.4 | Clear and accurate information is presented in a sequence to foster competency development. |
| | | 3.5 | Language is adjusted to suit training participants. |
| | | 3.6 | Training participants are actively involved in sessions by being encouraged to ask questions, clarify points of concern and contribute comments at appropriate and identified stages. |
| | | 3.7 | Training equipment and materials are used in a way that enhances learning. |
| | | 3.8 | Supplementary information is provided to enhance and clarify understanding as required by individuals or the group. |
| | | 3.9 | Key points are summarised at appropriate times to reinforce learning. |
| | | 3.10 | Individual learning and group dynamics are monitored and managed to achieve program goals. |
| | | 3.11 | Language, literacy and numeracy issues are taken into account to facilitate learning by training participants. |
| 4. | Provide opportunities for practice and feedback | 4.1 | Process, rationale and benefits of practice of competency are discussed with training participants. |
| | | 4.2 | Practice opportunities are provided to match: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• specific competencies to be achieved• context of the training program• specific outcomes of the training session |
| | | 4.3 | Training participants' readiness for assessment is monitored and discussed with participants. |

- | | | |
|----|-------------------------------------|--|
| | 4.4 | Constructive feedback and reinforcement are provided through further training and/or practice opportunities. |
| 5. | Review delivery of training session | 5.1 Training participants' review of training delivery is sought. |
| | 5.2 | The delivery of training session is discussed with appropriate personnel at appropriate times. |
| | 5.3 | Trainer self assesses training delivery against program goals, session plans and Assessment and Workplace Training Competency Standards. |
| | 5.4 | The reactions of relevant personnel to the delivery are sought and discussed at appropriate times. |
| | 5.5 | Adjustments to delivery, presentation and training are considered and incorporated. |

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement explains the scope and context of the unit of competency allowing for differences between workplaces. The scope of variables chosen for training and assessment requirements will depend on the particular work situation.

The following variables may be present

Appropriate personnel:

- trainers/teachers and assessors
- team leaders/supervisors/managers/employers
- participant/employee/learner
- technical experts
- government regulatory bodies
- union/employee representatives
- consultative committees
- users of training information such as training providers, employers, human resource departments
- Statutory Training/Recognition Authorities e.g. HEART/NTA, NCTVET

Characteristics of participants may include:

- language, literacy and numeracy needs
- cultural and language background
- educational background or general knowledge
- gender
- age
- physical ability
- previous experience with the topic
- experience in training and assessment
- level of confidence, nervousness or anxiety

Target group include may include:

- employee groups (e.g. particular classification or work area, female employees)
- groups or individuals with special training and or recognition needs

Training program may be based on:

- national industry training packages
- enterprise training packages
- enterprise based standards, standards of performance or curriculum
- international standards
- international programs

Target group's competencies may be identified by:

- reports on assessment of competencies
- content analysis of curriculum vitae
- enterprise training and assessment record keeping system
- industry training and assessment recording system
- self, peer or supervisor reports

Training delivery methods may include:

- face to face
- distance
- fixed schedule, partly self paced, all self paced
- trainer centred, participant centred
- place dependent, place independent
- interactive (e.g. audio, or video conferencing, computer assisted, discussion)

Practice opportunities may be:

- on the job
- off the job but located in participant's workplace
- off the job in a special demonstration area
- off the job in external training room
- work/field placements
- or a combination of the above

Training programs may involve:

- enterprise based delivery
- provider based delivery, fee for service
- community based delivery
- school based delivery
- international programs
- combination of the above

Training sessions may involve:

- theory
- demonstration
- combination of the two

Training materials may include:

- non-endorsed components of an industry training package
- work books
- workshop guides
- background reading materials/documents
- handouts
- industry/enterprise competency standards
- supportive policies and legislation

Dimensions of competency includes:

- task skills
- task management skills
- contingency management skills
- job/role environment skills
- transfer and application of skills and knowledge to new contexts

Training activities and tasks may include:

- oral presentations
- simulation activities
- project work
- group activities
- practical demonstrations
- assignments
- laboratory work
- shadowing, coaching, mentoring
- computer based learning
- role-plays
- interviews
- discussion groups
- surveys
- action learning
- on the job learning
- off the job learning
- practical placements

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of context and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence.

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Assessment requires evidence of the following products to be collected:

- delivery of training sessions in a number of contexts using a range of delivery methods to competency requirements
- training materials and resources
- trainers self assessment of their own training delivery
- documentation on reaction of appropriate personnel and training participants to delivery of training sessions
- changes made to subsequent delivery practices based on feedback by training participants and appropriate personnel

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- how training participants were informed of the:
 - program's goals
 - competencies to be achieved
 - training session outcomes,
 - on and/or off the job practice opportunities
 - benefits of practice
 - training activities and tasks
 - assessment tasks and requirements
- how the delivery of the training was conducted to ensure that :
 - training participants were involved in the sessions
 - language, literacy and numeracy issues were taken into consideration
- why particular resource materials were selected
- how the characteristics of training participants were identified and addressed
- how readiness for assessment was determined and confirmed with training participants

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- How constructive feedback was provided to the target group about their progress toward the program's goals
- How the group operated in terms of processes and dynamics
- How feedback from target group was received and program adjusted.

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- CSETDP0044A – Plan a series of training sessions

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and Skills

Knowledge

Knowledge of:

- relevant competency standards including industry or enterprise standards
- relationships of competencies to industrial agreements, classification systems and the National Qualifications Framework (NQF)
- relevant workplace policies and procedures that apply to that work and (any) related legislation on regulatory requirements (e.g. OHS and anti-discrimination regulations)
- competency in unit(s) of competency relevant to the training program
- design and / or customisation of effective learning resources
- knowledge of training delivery methods / strategies

Skills

The ability to:

- Identification and correct use of equipment, processes and procedures relevant to unit(s) of competencies
- Understanding of the principles of adult learning and competency based training as applied to target group
- Design and / or customisation of effective learning resources
- Skills in facilitating group and individual learning in specific contexts
- Skills in the design of activities and tasks to facilitate learning in specific contexts
- Sources of assistance for participants requiring language or other particular training support
- Planning own work including predicting consequences and identifying improvements
- Language, literacy and numeracy (LL&N) required skills to :
 - present information in a clear, logical and coherent manner
 - present technical information using language which mirrors the language used to perform the task or skill in the relevant work context
 - adjust spoken and written language to suit audience
 - employ interaction strategies and techniques (e.g. probing questioning, active listening & constructive feedback) to encourage participation
 - prepare learning resources and materials using language and layout features to suit intended audience

Underpinning Knowledge and Skills (Cont'd)Skills

The ability to:

- Awareness of language, literacy and numeracy (LL&N) issues and principles in the context of training and assessment, including the integration of LL&N with technical training
- Communication skills appropriate to the culture of the workplace, appropriate personnel and target group.

(4) Resource Implications

- Access to training program, training session plans, requisite training locations, materials and target groups for training.

(5) Method of Assessment

- Review of a portfolio containing the following.
- Evidence (lesson plans and attendance register) of training sessions in a number of contexts using a range of delivery methods to competency requirements.
- Training materials and resources
- Trainers self assessment of their own training delivery
- Documentation on reaction of appropriate personnel and training participants to delivery of training sessions (Clients, feedback to training delivery).
- Changes made to subsequent delivery practices based on feedback by training participants and appropriate personnel.

Questioning – oral/written relating to:

- How training participants were informed of the:
 - program's goals
 - competencies to be achieved
 - training session outcomes,
 - on and/or off the job practice opportunities
 - benefits of practice
 - training activities and tasks
 - assessment tasks and requirements
- How the delivery of the training was conducted to ensure that:
 - training participants were involved in the sessions
 - language, literacy and numeracy issues were taken into consideration
- Why particular resource materials were selected
- How the characteristics of training participants were identified and addressed
- How readiness for assessment was determined and confirmed with training participants
- How constructive feedback was provided to the target group about their progress toward the program's goals
- How the group operated in terms of processes and dynamics.
- How feedback from target group was received and program adjusted.

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence.

(6) Context of Assessment

Assessment should occur on the job or in a simulated workplace. The candidate assessor should use competencies relevant to their area of technical expertise.

CRITICAL EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS

Three levels of performance denote level of competency required to perform a task. These levels do not relate to the NCTVET Qualifications Framework. They relate to the seven areas of generic competency that underpin effective workplace practices.

CSETDP0054A: Review training

Competency Descriptor:

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to record training data and review training.

Competency Field:

Education and Training

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Record training data	1.1	Details of training program and target group's competency attainment are recorded in accordance with the training system requirements and securely stored.
		1.2	Training records are made available to authorised persons and training participants at the required times, as specified in the training system recording and reporting policy documents.
2.	Evaluate training	2.1	Training is evaluated against identified needs and goals of the training program.
		2.2	Feedback on the training program is sought from training participants and appropriate personnel.
		2.3	Training participants are encouraged to evaluate how progress towards achieving competency was enhanced by the training sessions.
		2.4	Trainer's performance is reviewed against: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • program goals • the Assessment and Workplace Training Competency Standards • training participants' comments • training participants' competency attainment
		2.5	Results of the evaluation are used to improve current and future training.
		2.6	Suggestions are made for improving any aspect of the recording procedure.
3.	Report on training	3.1	Reports on outcomes of the training sessions are developed and distributed to appropriate personnel.

Training may be:

- on the job
- in a simulated setting
- in a training organisation
- in a combination of locations to suit the units of competency being developed and/or assessed
- in a single site or a multi site operation
- a combination of the above

Target may include:

- employee groups (e.g. particular classification or work area, female employees)
- groups or individuals with special training and or recognition needs

Appropriate personnel may include:

- trainers/teachers and assessors
- team leaders/supervisors/managers/employers
- participant/employee/learner
- technical experts (e.g. language and literacy coordinators)
- government regulatory bodies
- union/employee representatives
- consultative committees
- users of training information such as training providers, employers, human resource departments
- state/territory training/recognition authorities

Training system may be developed by:

- the industry
- the enterprise
- the training organisation
- a combination of the above

Training evaluation may include:

- affective (e.g. satisfaction with the program)
- cognitive (e.g. knowledge or skill gain)
- performance or behaviour (e.g. absenteeism from work, productivity)

Client needs may include:

- increased productivity
- increased enterprise profitability
- attainment of specified industry or enterprise competencies
- achievement of community priorities
- achievement of government priorities

Clients may include:

- a department/division
- a work area
- an enterprise or organisation

Characteristics of participants may include:

- language, literacy and numeracy needs
- cultural language and education background
- educational background or general knowledge
- gender
- age
- physical ability
- previous experience with the topic
- experience in training and assessment
- level of confidence, nervousness or anxiety

Reports on training may be:

- written reports
- oral presentations
- audiovisual reports
- combination of the above

Training session may involve:

- theory
- demonstration
- or a combination of the two

Training programs may involve:

- enterprise based delivery
- provider based delivery:
 - fee for service
 - local, or national curricula
- community based delivery
- school based delivery
- international programs
- combination of the above

Training delivery methods:

- face to face
- distance
- fixed schedule, partly self paced, all self paced
- trainer centred, participant centred
- real time, time independent
- place dependent, place independent
- interactive (e.g. audio, or video conferencing, computer assisted, discussion)

Training support may come from:

- technical and subject experts (including particular subject and language and literacy specialists)
- language and literacy specialists
- team leaders/supervisors/managers/employers
- specific enterprises
- assessment/training partners
- trainers/teachers and assessors
- training and assessment coordinators

Record systems may be:

- paper based
- computer based systems using magnetic or optical storage
- combination of both paper and computer based systems

Variables for achieving competency may include:

- participant characteristics
- resources (time, location, space, people and costs)
- language, literacy and numeracy issues

Training materials may include:

- non-endorsed components of an industry training package
- work books
- workshop guides
- background reading materials/documents
- handouts
- industry/enterprise competency standards
- supportive policies and legislation

Practice opportunities may be:

- on the job
- off the job but located in participant's workplace
- off the job in a special demonstration area
- off the job in external training room
- work/field placements
- job rotation
- or a combination of the above

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts on multiple occasions, involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence.

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Assessment requires evidence of the following products to be collected:

- Evaluation reports in accordance with performance criteria (trainer, trainees and appropriate personnel).
- Training and assessment records
- Reports on the outcomes of the training sessions and training program.
- Plans for current and future training programs and activities.
- Promotional materials/reports
- Costs incurred.

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- How and why evaluation methods were selected.
- How evaluation information was gathered and acted upon.
- How the report on training sessions/programs was made to appropriate personnel.
- How records are maintained, kept confidential and secured.

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and Skills

Knowledge

Knowledge of:

- relevant competency standards, including industry or enterprise standards of performance
- legal and ethical responsibilities including occupational health and safety regulations and procedures, equal employment and anti-discrimination requirements and other policies relevant to the specified context
- policies and procedures relating to the organisation's training system including those requirements for recording and maintaining confidential, secure and accurate records
- evaluation and review methodologies including those that produce qualitative and quantitative data
- establishment of criteria to evaluate training programs
- adaptation and use of training record systems for formative and summative assessment

Skills

The ability to:

- planning own work including predicting consequences and identifying improvements
 - collect, organise and analyse data
 - prepare reports, questionnaires and promotional material
 - present qualitative and quantitative data in a clear and coherent manner
 - use probing questioning and active listening techniques to seek feedback on training
 - adjust spoken and written language to suit audience
- awareness of language, literacy and numeracy issues and principles in the context of training and assessment, including the integration of LL&N with technical training
- application of cultural understanding in the context of training and assessment

(4) Resource Implications

- Access to training record systems, programs, and appropriate personnel.

Opportunities to discuss training outcomes with appropriate personnel. Access to unit(s) of competency to be assessed, relevant training programs and materials and resources for the development of training arrangements.

(5) Method of Assessment

Review of a portfolio containing the following

- Evaluation reports in accordance with performance criteria (trainer, trainees and appropriate personnel)
- Training and assessment records
- Reports on the outcomes of the training sessions and training program.
- Plans for current and future training programs and activities
- Promotional materials/reports
- Costs incurred.

Questioning – oral/written relating to:

CSETDP0064A: Design and establish the training system

Competency Descriptor:

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to design and establish a training system.

Competency Field:

Education and Training

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Determine boundaries of the training	1.1	Services are determined and established through consultation with the client and stakeholders and a training policy documented.
		1.2	Stakeholder relationships are maintained through a range of communication mechanisms and the establishment of a service support structure.
		1.3	The financial, physical and human resources available to support the system are identified within agreed quality assurance procedures.
2.	Determine training system features	2.1	The key operational features and constraints of the training system are determined in consultation with stakeholders.
		2.2	The key operational features of the system are verified with appropriate personnel and clients and the agreed features of the system are documented.
3.	Match needs with resources	3.1	The expertise and roles of internal and external individuals and organisations/partners are identified.
		3.2	A budget, detailing development costs, implementation and maintenance costs of the proposed system, is developed, including partner organisations, if applicable.
4.	Design and develop a training records system	4.1	The record keeping system is designed to allow easy tracking of training participants' progress as well as other agreed features.
		4.2	The record keeping system allows for the storage of detailed information and is designed to be secure, confidential, easy to administer and update.

- | | | | |
|----|---|---|---|
| | 4.3 | The record keeping system is developed to allow for appropriate quality assurance requirements and verified for compliance with accepted enterprise/ industry procedures for record keeping and legislative requirements. | |
| | 4.4 | The record keeping system is designed and verified to allow for fair and consistent responses to grievances. | |
| | 4.5 | The record keeping system is designed to ensure that relevant legislative and regulatory requirements are met. | |
| 5. | Establish procedures for the review of training | 5.1 | Review procedures are developed and documented in consultation with stakeholders. |
| 6. | Select and provide for training of system users | 6.1 | The required mix of personnel and competencies to implement the training system are identified. |
| | | 6.2 | Appropriate training strategies are identified modified or developed for trainers and other personnel involved in the training system to acquire competencies. |
| | | 6.3 | The training programs selected or developed for assessors and trainers are verified to meet the Assessment and Workplace Training Competency Standards and other relevant competency standards. |
| 7. | Establish quality assurance procedures | 7.1 | A quality assurance team or committee is established in consultation with appropriate personnel. |
| | | 7.2 | Quality assurance procedures, including verification processes are developed in consultation with appropriate personnel. |
| | | 7.3 | The verification processes involves a representative sample of training activities and makes effective use of resources. |
| | | 7.4 | The quality assurance procedures are piloted for fairness, efficiency and effectiveness |
| | | 7.5 | The quality assurance procedures are documented and distributed to trainers and other appropriate personnel. |
| | | 7.6 | Procedures are established to determine the level of compliance with the training system. |

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement explains the scope and context of the unit of competency allowing for differences between workplaces. The scope of variables chosen for training and assessment requirements will depend on the particular work situation.

The following variables may be present

Stakeholders may include:

- industry/professional/trade associations
- trainers/teachers and assessors
- team leaders/managers/employers
- training and assessment coordinators
- participants/employees/learners
- technical experts
- government regulatory bodies
- union/employee representatives
- consultative committees
- relevant industry training advisory bodies
- funding bodies
- Statutory Training/Recognition Authorities e.g. HEART/NTA, NCTVET
- achievement of community priorities
- achievement of government priorities
- licensing/accreditation requirements
- Ministry of Education Youth and Culture
- Independent School Unit registration requirements

Clients' needs may include:

- increased productivity
- increased enterprise profitability
- attainment of specified industry or enterprise competencies
- achievement of community priorities
- achievement of government priorities
- licensing or accreditation requirements

Partners may include:

- public/private/community training providers
- schools, universities
- enterprises
- industry organisations
- international organisations
- government agencies
- community organisations
- individuals including technical experts, training and/or assessment specialists

Key operational features may include:

- the purpose of the training and the relevant competency outcomes of the training
- competencies and certification required of trainers
- record keeping system requirements, procedures and policies
- training context requirements and procedures to match identified competencies
- characteristics of training participants
- any allowable adjustments to the training methods for training participants
- access and equity considerations
- relevant commonwealth/state or territory legislative and regulatory requirements
- arrangements for recognition of competencies
- partnership arrangements
- location of training
- the review and evaluation process including quality assurance procedures
- allocation of costs/fees (if applicable)
- marketing/promotion of system

Operational constraints may include:

- time available
- relative cost implications
- budgetary constraints
- geographical and resource constraints
- availability of stakeholders and other personnel

Quality assurance procedures may include:

- conduct of regular internal and external reviews (person(s) being trained, peer, self and supervisor)
- professional development of participants
- implementation of competencies
- assessment of the assessors'/trainers' competencies
- modifications of the competency system based on evaluation and reviews
- promotion of regular networking amongst developers, assessors/trainers and peer
- moderation - review amongst persons responsible for planning, conducting and reviewing assessments/training within the system

Policy may include:

- purposes of training
- industrial relations issues
- what and who is to be trained
- timing of training
- links with other human resources functions
- appeal/review mechanisms
- criteria for making decisions of competent, or not yet competent
- number of trainers
- allowable adjustments to training /assessment to suit characteristics of training participants
- record keeping requirements
- recognition of prior learning/recognition of current competencies
- development costs and resources
- evaluation
- licensing arrangements
- qualifications

Purpose of training may include:

- productivity improvement
- professional development requirements
- competency acquisition
- induction of new employees
- refresher training for competency maintenance
- legislative or government regulatory requirements
- access and equity considerations

Characteristics of participants may include:

- language, literacy and numeracy needs
- cultural, language and educational background
- gender
- physical ability
- level of confidence, nervousness or anxiety
- age
- experience with topic
- learning styles
- reasons for undertaking training

Sources of information may include:

- industry/enterprise competency standards, including international information
- training packages
- curriculum and other training program information
- licensing requirements
- government legislation, policies and practices
- job descriptions
- observations of competent workers
- enterprise skills audit reports
- industry skills audit reports
- workplace conditions, policies and standard operating procedures
- benchmarking reports
- industry publications or reports
- market needs analysis reports
- quality assurance procedures

Record system may be:

- paper based system, such as forms or checklists
- computer-based system using magnetic or optical storage
- a combination of both paper and computer-based system.

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Assessment requires evidence of the following products to be collected:

- training policy
- description of the client and stakeholders
- documentation on the features of the training system
- report on sources of information researched to determine training system
- summary of available financial, physical and human resources
- analysis of possible constraints for training implementation
- report of the design, development, maintenance and security of the record keeping system
- documented review procedures for training system
- description of selection criteria and training programs for trainers and other personnel involved in the training system
- documentation of quality assurance mechanisms

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- how stakeholders were consulted and agreement was reached on operational features and quality assurance procedures
- how the following criteria were incorporated in the training system:
 - fairness, equity and accessibility of the training system
 - security and access requirements of the record keeping system
 - selection criteria for training personnel
 - selection and training of training personnel
 - feasibility, cost effectiveness and practicability of training system
 - review procedures, currency of records
 - currency of records
- how and why information needed in the development of the training system was sourced
- how the resources needed were researched and availability confirmed
- how the features of the training system, implementation plan and quality assurance procedures were verified

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and SkillsKnowledge

Knowledge of:

- language and literacy skills to comprehend sources of information and to prepare required documentation
- familiarity with relevant industry/enterprise competency or performance standards
- analysis of competencies to determine appropriate training system requirements
- knowledge of quality assurance methodology
- knowledge of record keeping systems, particularly those related to training
- knowledge of compliance requirements for copyright and other regulatory requirements
- knowledge of client work systems and equipment
- Knowledge of review/evaluation methodology, particularly as it relates to training

Skills

The ability to:

- identification and correct use of equipment, processes and procedures:
- planning own work including predicting consequences and identifying improvements
- communication skills appropriate to the culture of the workplace

(4) Resource Implications

- access to clients, sources of information and resources for the development of a training system

(5) Method of Assessment

Review of a portfolio containing the following

- training policy
- description of the client and stakeholders
- documentation on the features of the training system
- report on sources of information researched to determine training system
- summary of available financial, physical and human resources
- analysis of possible constraints for training implementation
- report of the design, development, maintenance and security of the record keeping system
- documented review procedures for training system
- description of selection criteria and training programs for trainers and other personnel involved in the training system
- documentation of quality assurance mechanisms

Questioning – oral/written relating to:

- how stakeholders were consulted and agreement was reached on operational features and quality assurance procedures
- how the following criteria were incorporated in the training system:
 - fairness, equity and accessibility of the training system
 - security and access requirements of the record keeping system
 - selection criteria for training personnel
 - selection and training of training personnel
 - feasibility, cost effectiveness and practicability of training system
 - review procedures, currency of records

CSETDP0074A: Design training courses

Competency Descriptor:

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required for designing training courses as part of a training system to meet client identified outcomes and where appropriate, receive formal recognition.

Competency Field: Education and Training

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Determine the need for a course	1.1	Stakeholders are identified and consulted to establish training aims and requirements.
		1.2	Course proposal is outlined in terms of stakeholders' aims.
		1.3	Relevant endorsed training packages and curriculum are sourced and assessed for relevance to course proposal.
		1.4	Any licensing/regulatory or government policies relevant to the course proposal are identified.
		1.5	Potential employment markets and career opportunities for training participants are recorded and documented.
		1.6	Results of monitoring activities for related courses are sourced and analysed, where appropriate.
2.	Identify the learner profile	2.1	Potential learners are identified.
		2.2	Profiles of learners on entry to the course are developed and learner profiles are examined to determine language and literacy requirements.
3.	Develop course structure	3.1	Core and elective units/modules are identified.
		3.2	The relationship between units of competence/modules and course outcomes is documented.
		3.3	Entry and exit points are identified and documented.
		3.4	Prerequisites for the course and for specific units/modules within the course are identified and documented.

- | | | | |
|----|--|-----|---|
| 4. | Determine the training and assessment requirements | 4.1 | The professional development and competency requirements of trainers and assessors are identified in consultation with appropriate personnel. |
| | | 4.2 | The trainer and assessor requirements are checked for consistency with industry/training package assessment guidelines, where appropriate. |
| | | 4.3 | Essential learning resources, materials, facilities, equipment and human resources are identified. |
| 5. | Define the training content | 5.1 | The competencies to be acquired by learners are clearly specified. |
| | | 5.2 | Entry-level competencies are identified and documented. |
| | | 5.3 | Requirements for on the job training or assessment are identified and documented. |
| | | 5.4 | Appropriate evidence and assessment methods are identified and documented. |
| 6. | Develop course monitoring arrangements | 6.1 | Mechanisms for ongoing course monitoring are negotiated, agreed and documented in consultation with appropriate personnel. |
| | | 6.2 | Arrangements to enable course outcomes to be evaluated against relevant performance indicators including industry/enterprise competency standards and learner needs are defined and documented. |
| 7. | Identify career/educational pathways | 7.1 | Course entry and exit points are linked to occupational and educational opportunities. |
| | | 7.2 | Articulation points with higher or related qualifications are identified, negotiated with course owners and documented. |

Relevant policies or agreement(s) on any of the following:

- purposes of training and assessment
- human resource management issues
- what and who are to be trained/ assessed
- timing of training/ assessments
- links with other human resources functions
- appeal/review mechanisms
- criteria for making decisions of competent, or not yet competent
- number of assessors
- allowable adjustments to the assessment
- procedure
- record keeping requirements
- recognition of prior learning/recognition of current competencies
- development costs and resources
- evaluation
- licensing

Licensing, regulatory and government policies may include:

- qualifications framework and regulations for issuing statements of attainment, qualifications
- relevant equal employment opportunity and anti-discrimination legislation, regulations and policies
- relevant licensing or accreditation arrangements

A training course proposal may include:

- stakeholder(s) aims and objectives
- course outcomes
- identified learners
- career and educational pathways
- scope and need for course

A training course may include:

- a set of training programs (or modules)

Stakeholders and relevant parties may include:

- professional associations
- employer associations
- union/employee associations
- secondary, vocational and higher education sector representatives
- potential learners
- trainers/teachers
- regulatory authorities
- partner organisations
- enterprise(s)/organisation(s)
- industry training advisory bodies
- industry sector
- government bodies
- community sector

Courses may be designed and documented (curriculum) to:-

- meet a whole or part qualification in a training package
- be submitted for formal recognition
- meet industry/enterprise competency standards
- meet stakeholder aims and objectives

Appropriate personnel may include:

- support personnel (administration)
- technical experts (e.g. language and literacy specialists)
- existing and former learners

Learner profiles might include:

- generic or technical competencies of potential clients
- relevant prior learning (formal and informal) and employment
- language, literacy and numeracy skills (LL&N)

Course monitoring arrangements may include:

- panel of external evaluators
- feedback from learners - during and after course delivery
- survey responses from industry/enterprises about the course outcomes
- supervisors/managers
- assessment/training personnel
- other training organisations (partners)
- moderation mechanisms of assessment decisions
- conduct of regular internal and external reviews
- sampling and evaluation of competencies
- networking of trainers and assessors involved in course implementation

Sources of information / documents may include:

Performance standards which may include:

- industry/enterprise competency standards
- licensing requirements
- job descriptions
- standard operating procedures

Training requirements may include:

- job placement
- field placement
- access to specialist equipment and facilities
- minimum competencies to be held by trainers

Course requirements:

Entry requirements may include:

- pre requisite competencies
- access to the workplace

Course outcomes may include:

- qualifications
- units of competence
- learning outcomes (module/program outcomes)

Conditions of service, legislation and industrial agreements including:

- workplace agreements and awards
- occupational health & safety procedures

Applicable Statutory, National legislation and related regulations concerning:

- occupational health & safety in terms of duties of employers, employees, suppliers and contractors
- workplace relations
- workers compensation
- equal opportunity, anti-discrimination and affirmative action

Satisfaction of requirements for:

- licensing
- memberships of professional associations
- further education opportunities
- employment

Assessment requirements may include:

- minimum competencies to be held by assessors
- assessment conditions including location, timing and access to resources

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence.

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Assessment requires evidence of the following products to be collected:

- documentation on the identification and confirmation stakeholder training aims and requirements
- course proposal
- course documentation
- documentation on course monitoring mechanisms
- description of career pathways, including qualification entry and exit points

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- how stakeholder needs were identified
- how the learner profile was researched
- how assessment and training requirements were researched
- how the course monitoring arrangements were developed

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and Skills

Knowledge

Knowledge of:

- mechanisms to implement relevant access and equity principles
- relevant training packages, competency and other performance standards to course proposal
- accreditation and any licensing or regulatory requirements
- course monitoring mechanisms
- compliance with requirements for copyright and other regulatory requirements
- language and literacy skills to collect and interpret irrelevant information relevant and communicate with stakeholders and appropriate personnel

Skills

The ability to:

- skills in planning own work including predicting consequences and identifying improvements
- communication skills appropriate to the culture of the workplace
- skills in applying OHS and other workplace policies and procedures and any related legislation or regulatory requirements

(4) Resource Implications

- access to stakeholders, information and resources to meet the required skills and knowledge and to develop course proposal, course documentation and course monitoring mechanisms

(5) Method of Assessment

Review of a portfolio containing the following:

- Documentation on the identification and confirmation stakeholder training aims and requirements
- Course proposal
- Course documentation
- Documentation on course monitoring mechanisms
- Description of career pathways, including qualification entry and exit points.

Questioning – oral/written relating to:

- How stakeholder needs were identified
- How the learner profile was researched
- How assessment and training requirements were researched
- How the course monitoring arrangements were developed.

(6) Context of Assessment

Competency is demonstrated by performance of all stated criteria, including paying particular attention to the critical aspects and the knowledge and skills elaborated in the Evidence Guide, and within the scope as defined by the Range Statement

Assessment may occur off the job.

CRITICAL EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS

Three levels of performance denote level of competency required to perform a task. These levels do not relate to the NCTVET Qualifications Framework. They relate to the seven areas of generic competency that underpin effective workplace practices.

CSEASV0015A: Manage the assessment system

Competency Descriptor:

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to manage an assessment system. The unit applies to those operating in assessment only contexts.

Competency Field:

Assessment Verification

ELEMENT OF COMPETENCY		PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
1.	Communicate the system	1.1	System features and procedures are documented and circulated to appropriate personnel.
		1.2	Procedures are established for keeping appropriate personnel regularly informed about the key features of the assessment system.
		1.3	Recognised products and services are accurately presented to prospective clients.
		1.4	The contribution of assessment to organisational goals is communicated.
2.	Support assessors	2.1	Checks are made to ensure assessors meet the relevant competency standards and system requirements.
		2.2	The training needs of assessors are identified.
		2.3	Procedures are developed for assessors to update competency, review and reflect on their work.
		2.4	Assessors are provided with accurate advice and ongoing support in their roles.
		2.5	Procedures to facilitate networking amongst assessors are established.
3.	Manage the record keeping system	3.1	Records are maintained for currency and adherence to government regulatory and organisational requirements.
		3.2	The record keeping system is maintained to ensure confidentiality and security of information.
		3.3	The record keeping system is reviewed and updated to meet changing technology and system requirements.

- | | | | |
|----|---------------------------------------|-----|--|
| 4. | Maintain quality assurance procedures | 4.1 | Internal audits of the assessment system are undertaken, non-conformities are noted and corrective action implemented. |
| | | 4.2 | Information from the quality assurance process is used to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• enable appropriate planning, resourcing and recording arrangements• identify any special requirements of persons being trained or assessed• determine the training needs and developmental activities for assessors |
| | | 4.3 | Assessment system is checked for validity, reliability, fairness and accuracy and reports developed. |
| 5. | Maintain records for audits | 5.1 | The purpose and frequency of the audits are agreed on. |
| | | 5.2 | Accurate verification records are maintained. |
| | | 5.3 | Accurate reports on audits and advisory activities are made available. |
| | | 5.4 | Concerns regarding the design and implementation of assessment and the interpretation of standards are clearly and promptly reported to the auditing body. |
| | | 5.5 | Clear recommendations for improvements to assessment practices, system and infrastructure requirements are documented. |
| | | 5.6 | Best practices are implemented and documented. |

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement explains the scope and context of the unit of competency allowing for differences between workplaces. The scope of variables chosen for training and assessment requirements will depend on the particular work situation.

The following variables may be present:

Appropriate personnel may include:

- assessors
- team leaders/supervisors/employers
- assessment coordinators
- participants/employees/learners
- technical experts
- government regulatory bodies
- union/employee representatives
- consultative committees
- relevant industry training advisory bodies
- users of training information such as training providers, employers, human resource departments
- Training/Recognition Authorities

Purposes of assessment may include:

- diagnosing performance
- classifying an employee
- confirming an employee's competency for the purpose of career advancement/job level
- awarding a qualification or statement of attainment
- confirming progress in learning
- recognition of current competency/recognition of prior learning

Sources of information may include:

- industry/enterprise competency standards, including international information
- training packages
- curriculum and other training program information
- licensing requirements
- government legislation, policies and practices
- job descriptions
- observations of competent workers
- enterprise skills audit reports
- industry skills audit reports
- workplace conditions, policies and standard operating procedures
- benchmarking reports
- industry publications or reports
- market needs analysis reports
- quality assurance procedures

Purpose of training may include:

- productivity improvement
- professional development requirements
- competency acquisition
- induction of new employees
- refresher training for competency maintenance
- legislative or government regulatory requirements
- access and equity considerations

System may be developed by:

- the industry
- the enterprise
- the training organisation
- a combination of the above

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Competency in this unit needs to be assessed over a period of time, in a range of contexts, and on multiple occasions involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

Assessment requires evidence of the following products:

- records which are current and meet legislative, industry/enterprise requirements
- a record keeping system which maintains confidentiality is secure and effectively uses appropriate technology
- documentation used to inform all appropriate personnel about the assessment system
- information on procedures for assessors to update personal competency and review and reflect on assessment issues and personal performance
- documentation on the implementation of quality assurance procedures, including moderation and monitoring of assessment decisions
- an appeal procedure for assessment decisions
- conduct of regular internal or external reviews and evaluation
- sampling and evaluation of judgements of evidence and assessment decisions to check their fairness and accuracy
- modifications of the system based on evaluations and reviews
- referral of any recommended changes/modifications to the system

Assessment requires evidence of the following processes to be provided:

- how opportunities are provided for assessors to practice and maintain current competency
- how the security and confidentiality of records are maintained
- how support is given to the implementation of quality assurance procedures
- how networking is achieved amongst assessors
- how the quality assurance procedures are implemented
- why particular procedures were chosen for internal/external review of the assessment system
- why any modifications are recommended to the assessment system on the basis of evaluations and review
- how the record keeping system is maintained including how it meets legislative and organisational requirements
- why professional development strategies were chosen for assessors and how they were circulated and promoted

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and SkillsKnowledge

Knowledge of:

- language and literacy skills to comprehend sources of information and to prepare required documentation in a clear and comprehensible format
- relevant industry/enterprise competency or performance standards
- quality assurance methodology
- requirements for copyright and other regulatory requirements
- audit procedures as they relate to assessment systems

Skills

The ability to:

- focus of operation of work systems and equipment
- identification and correct use of equipment, processes and procedures
- planning own work including predicting consequences and identifying improvements
- communication skills appropriate to the culture of the workplace

(4) Resource Implications

- access to an assessment system and relevant information and resources on management and review procedures

(5) Method of Assessment

Review of a portfolio containing the following:

- records which are current and meet legislative, industry/enterprise requirements
- a record keeping system which maintains confidentiality is secure and effectively uses appropriate technology
- documentation used to inform all appropriate personnel about the assessment system
- information on procedures for assessors to update personal competency and review and reflect on assessment issues and personal performance

Documentation on the implementation of quality assurance procedures, including:

- moderation and monitoring of assessment decisions
- an appeal procedure for assessment decisions
- conduct of regular internal or external reviews and evaluation
- sampling and evaluation of judgements of evidence and assessment decisions to check their fairness and accuracy
- modifications of the system based on evaluations and reviews
- referral of any recommended changes/modifications to the system

Method of Assessment (Cont'd)

Questioning – oral/written relating to:

- how opportunities are provided for assessors to practice and maintain current competency
- how the security and confidentiality of records are maintained
- how support is given to the implementation of quality assurance procedures
- how networking is achieved amongst assessors
- how the quality assurance procedures are implemented
- why particular procedures were chosen for internal/external review of the assessment system
- why any modifications are recommended to the assessment system on the basis of evaluations and review
- how the record keeping system is maintained including how it meets legislative and organisational requirements
- why professional development strategies were chosen for assessors and how they were circulated and promoted

(6) Context of Assessment

Assessment may occur on the job or in a simulated workplace.

CSEASV0035A: Lead and coordinate assessment systems and services

Competency Descriptor:

This unit deals with the knowledge and skills required to effectively lead and coordinate assessment systems and services in a TVET environment.

Competency Field: Assessment Verification

1. Develop and extend assessment expertise	1.1 Relevant and current research on assessment is accessed, read and incorporated into assessment practices. 1.2 Opportunities to extend assessment expertise are sourced and accessed and new/extended assessment skills and knowledge are incorporated into assessment practices. 1.3 A range of assessment methods is demonstrated in assessment practice. 1.4 Cognitive skills are used to guide and support quality assessment practice and address issues in assessment practice. 1.5 Ethical standards underpin assessment practice. 1.6 Reflection is used to explore and extend expertise in assessment.
2. Lead assessment activities	2.1 Assessment strategies are developed and confirmed in assessment only pathways. 2.2 Roles, responsibilities and accountabilities of relevant persons in assessment are discussed and confirmed. 2.3 NCTVET and organisational requirements relating to the competence of assessors are confirmed and documented. 2.4 Partnership arrangements are initiated and developed setting out identified roles, responsibilities and services to be provided where necessary. 2.5 Strategies for communication and networking are established and maintained with and between assessors. 2.6 Leadership skills are used to provide clear direction, advice and support to assessors.

- 2.7 Professional development needs and opportunities for assessors are identified and recommendations made to relevant personnel.
3. Monitor assessment practice
- 3.1 Assessment practice of assessors is systematically monitored in relation to:
- how client/candidate needs are being met
 - how effectively and accurately the designated competency standards are being interpreted by assessors as the benchmarks for assessment
 - how the principles of assessment are being applied in assessment practice
 - application of assessment methods and tools
 - how the rules of evidence are being applied in assessing the evidence
 - whether assessment is being conducted in accordance with the policies and procedures of the organisation's assessment system
 - whether organisational/legal/ethical requirements are being met
- 3.2 Individual facilitation techniques are used to guide and support assessors as they work and to improve assessment practice.
- 3.3 Assessment records are analysed to ensure legal/organisational/ethical requirements are being met and appropriate advice is provided to improve record keeping arrangements where issues arise.
4. Coordinate assessment validation activities
- 4.1 Assessment system policies and procedures relating to validation are accessed and interpreted, and validation is initiated in line with organisational/legal/ethical requirements.
- 4.2 Risk assessment/analysis is undertaken to determine the purpose, focus and context of validation activities.
- 4.3 Approaches to validation are determined.
- 4.4 Participants in validation are determined and/or confirmed, and materials and resources needed for validation activities are organised.
- 4.5 Guidance and leadership is provided to direct and support participants throughout the validation process.

- | | | | |
|----|---------------------------|--|---|
| | 4.6 | Validation documentation is finalised and processed in accordance with assessment system/legal/organisational procedures and presented to relevant people, within an agreed timeframe. | |
| | 4.7 | Recommendations from validation processes are forwarded to the appropriate authority. | |
| 5. | Manage assessment appeals | 5.1 | Assessment system policies and procedures for assessment appeals are accessed and interpreted. |
| | | 5.2 | Documented appeal claims are accessed and interpreted. |
| | | 5.3 | Relevant parties to the appeal are interviewed, and negotiation skills are used to achieve resolution prior to formal appeal, where appropriate. |
| | | 5.4 | Appeal panel is constituted and a timetable is set to hear unresolved claims. |
| | | 5.5 | Guidance and leadership are provided to panel members and other parties during the appeal process to ensure fairness, equity, verity and relevance. |
| | | 5.6 | All documentation relevant to the appeal process is checked for accuracy and completeness. |
| | | 5.7 | Panel decision is confirmed and recorded in accordance with organisational policy and procedures, and outcomes are communicated to the parties. |

RANGE STATEMENTS

The Range Statement adds definition to the unit by elaborating critical or significant aspects of the performance requirements of the unit. The Range Statement establishes the range of indicative meanings or applications of these requirements in different operating contexts and conditions.

Cognitive skills may include:

- analysis skills
- synthesis skills
- interpretative skills
- planning skills
- evaluation skills
- problem solving skills
- critical thinking skills
- knowledge transfer skills

Issues may include:

- issues and concerns raised by assessors
- issues and concerns raised by candidates
- issues and concerns raised by others impacted by the assessment process
- assessment system policy and procedure issues
- organisational/legal/ethical issues

A range of assessment methods includes:

- simulations
- structured oral/written questioning techniques, such as invitation, exploration, confirmation, investigation and reflection
- practical and theoretical tests
- workplace projects
- structured activities such as role-plays, presentations, completion of assessment activity sheets
- portfolios
- observation
- third party feedback
- product review

Ethical standards include:

- following assessment system organisational policies and procedures
- demonstrating inclusiveness
- following standards relating to assessment
- ensuring assessment is guided by the principles of assessment and the rules of evidence
- security of information
- confidentiality and privacy requirements

Client/candidate needs may include:

- clear information and advice on the assessment process
- contextualisation of assessment benchmarks and assessment tools to the assessment environment
- timeliness and recognition of readiness for assessment
- assessment tools that support integrated assessment
- advice, support and guidance from assessor/s on participation and role in the assessment process
- reasonable adjustment needs
- cultural sensitivity

Opportunities include

- networking through assessor networks, communities of practice and membership of representative organisations
- professional and staff development activities
- attending forums, conferences, workshops
- participating in projects

Reflection may include:

- asking critical questions about own ability, for example:
 - what worked
 - what did not work
 - how the session could be improved
 - reviewing records and journals
 - critically evaluating personal performance

Relevant persons may include:

- assessors in own organisation and on site
- assessors in own organisation operating indifferent site/s
- assessors of another organisation which is in partnership with own organisation
- personnel of own/another organisation who provide vocational/subject matter expertise and who work with the assessor/s in team assessments
- other personnel who assist the assessor in collecting evidence of candidate/s competence
- other personnel impacted by the assessment process

Assessment strategies are documented frameworks to guide and structure assessment arrangements for a vocational education and training qualification and may include:

- the identification and interpretation of competency standards for assessment purposes
- the identification and interpretation of related assessment documentation for assessment purposes
- application of Training Package Assessment Guidelines
- arrangements for recognition of existing competence including provision of guidance and assistance to candidates in gathering and evaluating own evidence
- determination of assessment methods for identified competency standards
- selection of assessment tools for identified competency standards
- organisational arrangements for assessment, including physical and human resources, roles and responsibilities, team assessment and partnership arrangements (where relevant)
- nominated quality assurance mechanisms
- identified risk management strategies

Assessment tools contain both the instruments and the procedures for gathering and interpreting evidence in accordance with designated assessment methods and may include:

the instruments to be used for gathering evidence such as:

- a profile of acceptable performance measures
- templates/proformas
- specific questions or activities
- evidence/observation checklists
- checklists for the evaluation of work samples
- candidate self-assessment materials
- the procedures, information and instructions for the assessor/candidate relating to the use of assessment instruments and the conditions for assessment

Leadership skills may include:

- techniques for initiating action and directing decision making
- strategies for presenting a confident, assured and unhesitant manner in response to challenging situations
- strategies for not accepting unreasonable expectations
- maintaining ethical practice and beliefs in the face of opposition
- modelling behavioural and personal presentation standards
- time management
- strategies for acknowledging and respecting the attitudes and beliefs of others
- techniques for promoting active and genuine participation

Assessment methods are the particular techniques used to gather evidence and may include:

- direct observation, for example:
 - real work/real time activities at the workplace
 - work activities in a simulated workplace environment
- structured activities, for example:
 - simulation exercises/role-plays
 - projects
 - presentations
 - activity sheets

Partnership arrangements refers to:

- collaborative arrangements between an Accredited Training Organisation (ATO) and other organisations including other ATOs which enable the partners to share for mutual benefit their resources, effort, time, costs, responsibility and expertise in the provision of training and/or assessment services.

Individual facilitation techniques include coaching, mentoring, tutoring matching individuals one on one and may be used to:

- identify any gaps in assessor skills/competence
- explain legal/organisational/policy requirements
- clarify assessment issues
- provide encouragement and direction
- provide feedback/advice/guidance
- promote safety in assessment
- problem solve

Assessment system policies and procedures may include but are not limited to:

- candidate selection
- rationale and purpose of competency-based assessment
- assessment records/data management/information management
- recognition of current competency/recognition of prior learning/credit arrangements
- assessors - needs, qualifications, maintaining currency in related field
- assessment reporting procedures
- assessment appeals
- candidate grievances/complaints
- validation
- evaluation/internal audit
- costs/resourcing
- access and equity/reasonable adjustment
- partnership arrangements
- links with human resource or industrial relations systems
- links with overall quality management system

Principles of assessment guide the assessment process and must address.

- validity
- reliability
- flexibility
- fairness

Rule of evidence include:

- validity of evidence
- sufficiency of evidence
- currency of evidence
- authenticity of evidence

Purpose, focus and context of validation activities may be:

- analysing and reviewing collected evidence
- analysing and reviewing assessment decisions/records of assessment outcomes
- examining assessment records
- examining assessment systems
- discussing the assessment process, issues and difficulties in interpretation
- holding interviews with each other or with management, trainers/facilitators, candidates
- analysing client feedback
- observing assessment conduct
- using validation tools
- reviewing and interpreting Assessment Guidelines
- examining assessor qualifications
- analysing appeals processes
- recording evidence of validation processes and outcomes

Questioning, for example:

- written questions
- interviews
- self-assessment
- verbal questioning
- questionnaires
- oral or written examinations (applicable at higher levels)

Review of products, for example:

- products as a result of a project
- work samples/products
- third party feedback, for example:
- testimonials/reports from employers/supervisors
- evidence of training
- authenticated prior achievements
- interview with employer, supervisor, peer

Documentation relevant to the appeals process may include:

- candidate's claim for appeal
- documented information given to the candidate outlining assessment system, process and requirements
- records of assessor/meetings with the candidate, discussions and agreements on assessment process
- completed self-assessment tools
- completed assessment tools signed by assessor and/or other persons involved in collecting evidence
- supplementary documentation used as evidence by the candidate
- records of assessment outcomes
- assessor/candidate feedback reports
- records of appeal hearings
- records of appeal outcomes

Portfolios, for example:

- collections of work samples compiled by the candidate
- product with supporting documentation
- historical evidence
- journal/log book
- information about life experience

Validation is:

- a process involving assessors working in collaboration to review, compare and evaluate their assessment process and their assessment outcomes, in relation to the same units of competency

Panel decision may include:

- confirmation of original assessment decision
- change in decision based on evidence presented
- reassessment of the candidate

Organisational/legal/ethical requirements may relate to:

- NCTVET requirements in assessment/registration
- Assessment specifications of Training Packages
- registering body requirements
- clauses defining assessment operations in award and enterprise agreements and relevant industrial arrangements
- confidentiality and privacy requirements
- relevant legislation from all levels of government that affect training and/or assessment operations
- occupational health and safety (OHS)
- environmental issues
- equal opportunity requirements
- industrial relations and anti-discrimination
- relevant industry codes of practice
- reporting procedures for assessment results
- certification procedures/requirements
- recording and reporting assessment results
- maintaining and retrieving assessment information
- quality assurance and/or procedures manuals
- goals, objectives, plans, systems and processes
- organisational policies/guidelines
- access and equity principles and practice
- ethical standards
- collaborative/partnership arrangements
- OHS policies, procedures and programs
- quality and continuous improvement processes and standards
- defined resource parameters

Validation documentation may include:

- report of validation process
- recommendations from validation process
- copies of materials/resources used in validation process
- version control documentation

Materials and resources for validation may include:

- relevant documented assessment strategy
- samples of assessment materials/tools
- copies of relevant competency standards, modules, Training Package Assessment Guidelines and course assessment requirements
- copies of organisational policies and procedures on validation
- copies of relevant standards
- copies of assessment records (in accord with confidentiality requirements)
- copies of client/candidate feedback
- determining time/availability for validation sessions
- technology requirements
- meeting room/space for conduct of validation
- copies of occupational health and safety policy, procedures and programs
- copy of quality and continuous improvement policies
- copy of equity policy and procedures

Assessment appeals:

- is a process whereby the candidate, or other interested party, may dispute the assessment decision and seeks a formal review of the decision

EVIDENCE GUIDE

(1) Critical Aspects of Evidence

To demonstrate competence against this unit candidate must be able to provide evidence that they have:

- undertaken continuous development of own assessment expertise; provided leadership, direction and support to other assessors, including role-modelling good assessment practice
- monitored the work of assessors and taken responsibility for initiating, organising and facilitating assessment validation and appeals processes
- accurately interpreted the organisation's quality assurance goals and strategies

(2) Pre-requisite Relationship of Units

- Nil

(3) Underpinning Knowledge and SkillsKnowledge

Knowledge of:

- competency-based assessment including:
 - vocational education and training as a competency-based system
 - assessment is criterion referenced/distinction to norm referenced assessment
 - criterion used in national VET is endorsed or accredited competency standards defining specifications for performance of work/work functions and skills/knowledge
 - reporting of competency-based assessment
 - competency standards as the basis of qualifications
 - the principles of competency-based assessment
 - the structure and application of competency standards
 - how to interpret competency standards and other related assessment information to determine the evidence needed to demonstrate competency including:
 - the components of competency assessment of Employability Skills, dimensions of competency and OHS requirements
 - Training Package Assessment Guidelines
 - the qualification level of units
 - NCTVET requirement for assessment
 - the organisation's assessment system policies and procedures
 - different assessment methods, purposes and applications
 - appeals mechanisms within the organisation

Skill

The ability to:

- apply analysis and interpretation skills to:
 - evaluate assessment methods and tools
 - access and interpret organisation's standards and values
 - apply observation skills to:
 - assess the effectiveness of the organisation's assessment process
 - distinguish different types of problems, e.g. technical, people and theoretical
 - apply technology skills to:
 - use appropriate equipment and software to systematically monitor assessment process and practice
 - distribute information
 - apply evaluation skills to:
 - evaluate validation process and determine and implement improvements
 - determine sampling methods to be used to access information
 - systematically evaluate personal or others' practice to improve performance or understanding
 - apply research skills to:
 - determine sampling methods to be used to access information
 - access and analyse relevant documents
 - use a range of source documents to access information for validation
 - apply problem solving skills to:
 - combine different modes of thinking such as creative and analytic for practical problem solving
 - anticipate future implications for own and others' decisions
 - reliably evaluate alternative solutions
 - apply literacy skills to:
 - read, interpret and evaluate policies and procedures to monitor assessment and recognition processes

Underpinning Knowledge and Skills (Cont'd)

Knowledge

Knowledge of:

- different types of assessment tools, what tools work for what types of evidence, what are well-constructed assessment tools and why
- what are the principles of assessment and how they guide assessment, validation, appeals processes
- what are the rules of evidence, why are they important, particularly in a validation context
- what is an assessment strategy and assessment plan and what are the components of assessment strategies and assessment plans
- what is validation, purpose/focus of carrying out validation, different approaches to assessment validation and the critical aspects of validation
- different activities and tools for validation and their appropriateness to the purpose/focus
- a range of technology and its application to improve or assist in quality assessment
- roles and responsibilities of workplace trainers/facilitators, assessors and others - such as vocational experts, workplace supervisors and support persons - in the assessment process, including OHS obligations and duty of care
- strategies which ensure the assessment process is transparent and credible, such as:
- identifying common pitfalls or errors that affect judgement
- open/ongoing communication between assessors
- self-assessment
- networking
- professional development activities for assessors
- ongoing contact with industry

Skill

The ability to:

- prepare required documentation and information for those involved in the assessment process
- prepare written reports regarding validation outcomes
- apply leadership skills to:
- set direction for others
- influence and motivate others
- guide and support others
- manage conflict
- make informed decisions and recommendations
- schedule validation processes
- gain commitment to validation processes and make recommendations to improve processes
- apply communication skills to:
- obtain feedback on validation strategy
- explain the purpose of reports and other documentation used in the work area
- use language to influence others
- promote and implement quality standards
- apply individual facilitation techniques:
- guide and support assessors one on one
- conflict resolution techniques to:
- manage difficulties with and between assessors and between assessors/candidate and/or assessors/other persons
- address appeals situations and process
- apply team and group skills to:
- conduct group discussions to gather ideas
- recognise different abilities or knowledge
- build relationships and networks with colleagues

Underpinning Knowledge and Skills (Cont'd)Knowledge

Knowledge of:

- using assessment panels or teams
- conflict resolution techniques
- motivating others
- team and group roles and processes, such as:
 - monitoring progress against key goals
 - leading others
 - encouraging team contribution
- legal, organisational and ethical responsibilities associated with the assessment system, including:
 - maintaining client privacy and confidentiality
 - providing accurate information
 - duty of care under common law
 - meeting environmental standards
 - the industrial relations system, industry/workplace relations, and industrial awards/enterprise agreements
- compliance with NCTVET requirements
- copyright and privacy laws in terms of electronic technology
- security of information
- plagiarism
- Training Packages/competency standards/other assessment documentation
- Code of Practice for assessors
- relevant OHS legislation, codes of practice, standards and guidelines relating to providing assessment advice and guidance

(4) Resource Implications

The following resources should be made available for assessment:

- operating assessment system including documented policies and procedures for assessment, validation and appeals
- access to competency standards and other assessment documentation
- access to assessment materials and tools
- access to suitable assessment venue/equipment
- workplace documentation

(5) Method of Assessment

Assessment must address the scope of this unit and reflect all components of the unit i.e. the Elements, Performance Criteria, Range Statement, Evidence Guide, Employability Skills.

A range of appropriate assessment methods/evidence gathering techniques may be used to determine competency.

(6) Context of Assessment

Evidence must be gathered in the workplace wherever possible. Where no workplace is available, a simulated workplace must be provided.

CRITICAL EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS

Three levels of performance denote level of competency required to perform a task. These levels do not relate to the NCTVET Qualification Framework. They relate to the seven areas of generic competency that underpin effective workplace practices.
